Thy Kingdom Come

The material for this book was published serially in The Beacon Light last year, and presented to the public in book form in October; and has created something of a sensation among thinkers, especially among men and women who are leaders among leaders. We have letters from ministers of many denominations, and the book has only been out about 30 days as this is written. Metaphysical students of many schools have proclaimed it the Book of the Age.

Let me quote one of the many enthusiastic testimonials, received from Dr. Juno Kayy Walton, daughter of Julia Seton, internationally known Truth teacher, and herself president of California Institute of Numerical Research Inc. and the acknowledged leader in the field of numerology:

"Dear Mr. Kullgren: Congratulations! You have put out a wonderful book. It is colorful and attractive from the first glance, and the Bible references quoted make it very valuable.

"It is gratifying to me to know that the Letters are now in book form for all to read; they are too valuable to be given only to the few, and this is written with so much sincerity, love and sweetness. I first received them in 1934, and at that time it seemed an impossibility that a greater war could come, or any of the prophecies of change could come. But year by year I have seen the prophecies come true, and there is every reason now to believe the rest will likewise be true.

"There is nothing to fear in the prophecy of change; instead, they give me a feeling of joy, that so soon the old, false ways of living and the unfair methods of business and politics will be a thing of the past. Then we will all share in a happier world, good to live in."

'Thy Kingdom Come' contains a message of hope for a despairing world, for it gives the workable economic plan of the future; a divine blue print of God's plan for the human race, based on the laws of God, or if you prefer the laws of Nature.

This is the goal of all idealists, and this plan should appeal to all sincere seekers for a workable solution to the world's problems.

Beautifully bound in art covers; the price is $1.00, and we are offering 6 copies for $5.00.

WORLD GOVERNMENT

CHAS. W. PHILLIPS in "The Individualist"

During the past year a great deal has been included in these bulletins showing some of the different aspects of world government as contemplated by those who have taken it upon themselves, for business reasons or otherwise, to plan for the new world order. Excerpts from books, articles and speeches were also quoted which showed that the main features of the various plans for world government adhered to a common pattern. The majority of people still imagine that the campaign for world government at the expense of our own national independence, has not passed beyond the academic stage. They have not heard of the Humber resolution which was introduced in the North Carolina Legislature and to which last week's bulletin referred. The Humber resolution was a product of the "World Government Foundation".

"World Government Foundation"

According to its own literature, the "World Government Foundation" is an auxiliary of "World Fellowship, Inc." which was begun in 1918 and which will be discussed at a later time. The "World Government Foundation" is responsible for some very well prepared and expensive literature which sets forth its aims and some of its background. It also discloses a few of the factors responsible for the motivation of its founder and trustee, Charles Henry Davis.

Mr Robert Lee Humber, who was responsible for the North Carolina Resolution endorsing "The Declaration of the Federation of the World", works with Charles Henry Davis who is Founder and Trustee of the "World Government Foundation". Mr. Davis and Darwin J. Meserole gave a luncheon at the Town Hall Club in New York City on January 23, 1942, at which luncheon the main speaker was Robert Lee Humber. Considering the efforts of Humber and Davis to unite our country with Britain, Meserole, when we examine his background, might be considered a discordant note in the trio. However, their co-operation testifies to the efficiency of internationalist direction that is able to lead different groups and individuals, ostensibly working at cross purposes, towards a common goal.

During World War I, Mr. Meserole's efforts were along another direction entirely. According to the New York Legislature on "Revolutionary Radicalism" and "Subversive Movements", published in 1920, Mr. Meserole gave valuable assistance to the "First American Conference of Democracy and Terms of Peace", held in New York City on May 30-31, 1917. This group, at a time when Russia was threatening to make a separate peace with Germany and desert the Allies following the first Russian Revolution in March, 1917, decided it was the proper moment to present what the New York Legislative Committee defined as "a thoroughly socialistic, pro-German and undemocratic program under the name of 'Democracy'."

In referring to the published report of the conference, the Lusk Report went on to say:

"In the very foreword of this peculiarly un-American document, in the very act of shrieking aloud its Americanism, we find this sinister juggling of words and motives. After a diatribe against militarism justifying the organization of the Conference, representing the combined Socialist, pacifist and anti-military leagues of the country, we are told that these are 'a mighty force demanding that American democracy, American ideals, American peace be preserved inviolate'. The foreword then continues:

"'Such an organization was rendered doubly necessary by the revolution in Russia . . . They (the American people) wanted to make known to this free Russian people that the feelings of those who dwell in America were not truly expressed by the warlike and undemocratic action of the official government that was elected to represent them. They wanted to show that they stand solid behind the Russian democracy and are ready to work with them until the autocracy of the entire world is overthrown'.

"In plain words, the Socialists and their pacifist allies of this country, thoroughly in sympathy with the Socialist program of Russia, were preparing to join them in an effort to overthrow the so-called autocracies (our own Government included, as we shall presently see) of the world.

"That this program of international Socialism is sounded over and over again in the proceedings of the Conference—and along with it more or less open sympathy with Germany)—we are about to illustrate step by step. . . ." ("Lusk Report", Vol. 1, pages 1039-40, underlining added.)

That was 25 years ago. Today, we find some of these very same people or their spiritual brethren who were pro-German and against our war efforts in 1917, leading the pack all out for everything like "Union Now" or a federation with England. But they are not inconsistent. Twenty-five years ago the soviet empire, not quite fully hatched, was about to leave the nest of the Allies and make a separate peace with Germany. So why shouldn't they take the part of Germany then! Today, the U. S. S. R., even though she still recognizes her neutrality pact with Japan, considers herself a member of the United Nations. Then, as now, the collectivists worked for a new world order based on the principle of international socialism. They evaluated our own war effort then solely from the standpoint of how it could most benefit the socialist cause and they use the same yardstick now. But now they receive the assistance of the international business men who, in conspiring to install international industrialism throughout the world, JOIN them in promoting movements for world government.

Th foregoing is tendered with the hope that some of us who are in this fight today to defend our people and our institutions from both foreign and domestic aggressors will see through the double-dealing of those who are seeking to utilize our war program as a means of defending the soviet regime or as a means of removing the barriers to their international business schemes imposed by our Republic as a national sovereignty. If the honest new world order-ites are so naive as to be unable to understand the motives underlying most of the assistance given to their movements, they are not proper leaders for any movement which threatens the sovereignty of our Republic.

The "World Government Foundation" has proposed a constitution for world government which is called the "United World Peace Empire Magna Carta—United States of the World". Their suggested constitution has thirteen articles which read as follows:

"ARTICLE 1:—The People of the British Empire, its Dominions and Overseas Possessions, and the United States of America, its States, Territories and Dependencies, declare their union as Commonwealths under ONE FLAG for World Peace through their mutual and voluntary adoption and adherence to the obligations, terms and conditions of this United World Peace Empire Magna Carta.

"ARTICLE 2:—The Government of the United World Peace Empire shall consist of His Excellency the World Peace Potentate and the World Peace Supreme Council of twenty-four (24) World Peace Councillors until increased under Article 12.

"ARTICLE 3:—The First World Peace Councillors shall be named . . . ( . . . ) from the British Empire and . . . ( . . . ) from the United States of America. The World Peace Councillors shall hold office for such period of time as each Commonwealth may determine and shall not again hold such office thereafter at any time.

"ARTICLE 4:—The World Peace Supreme Council shall unanimously name for life His Excellency The World Peace Potentate subject to removal at any time by the joint action of three-fourths of the World Peace Supreme Council.

"ARTICLE 5:—His Excellency The World Peace Potentate and the World Peace Supreme Council shall by unanimous action control and regulate all relationships, financial, commercial, industrial, political, social and otherwise whatsoever between the Commonwealths themselves and between the Commonwealths severally or together or the United World Peace Empire or any of their peoples with the outside world.

"ARTICLE 6:—His Excellency The World Peace Potentate shall from time to time determine, in his sole and absolute discretion, the amount of monies needed by the United World Peace Empire and shall collect these monies from the several Commonwealths.

"ARTICLE 7:—The World Peace Supreme Council shall by unanimous action apportion the taxes upon and between the Commonwealths and political subdivisions thereof, in such amounts, in such manner and at such times, in the sole and absolute discretion of the World Peace Supreme Council, as will enable His Excellency The World Peace Potentate to collect the monies needed by the United World Peace Empire to the amount as may be determined by him under Article 6.

"ARTICLE 8:—All executive, legislative and judicial powers, rights, privileges and discretions of the Government of the United World Peace Empire, save those under Articles 4, 5 and 7, shall rest solely in the hands of and be exercised by His Excellency The World Peace Potentate without limitations or qualifications of any kind or description to the end that his decisions and acts shall be conclusive and absolute.

"ARTICLE 9:—The World Peace Councillors shall have the right to advise His Excellency The World Peace Potentate, individually, in groups or unanimously at the request of His Excellency The World Peace Potentate or on their own initiative or at the request of any Government of any Commonwealth or political subdivisions thereof or at the request of any of their peoples.

"ARTICLE 10:—A printed record of all decisions and acts of His Excellency The World Peace Potentate and a printed record of the decisions, acts and advices of the World Peace—Councillors together with a printed record of all requests to the World Peace Councillors from the Governments of their Commonwealths or political subdivisions thereof or their peoples shall be lodged with each and every daily, weekly, bi-weekly, monthly and quarterly publication throughout the United World Peace Empire and shall be open at all times to any and all peoples of the United World Peace Empire.

"ARTICLE 11:—His Excellency The World Peace Potentate shall create, organize, build, acquire, maintain, use and command such armies, navies, air forces and other military means together with all properties, structures, devices and means which he deems essential thereto in his sole and absolute discretion necessary to maintain or restore peace throughout the world and shall use them for no other purpose whatsoever.

"ARTICLE 12:—At any time hereafter any nation may become a Commonwealth under the United World Peace Empire by the voluntary adoption and adherence to the obligations, terms and conditions of this United World Peace Empire Magna Carta and naming their World Peace Councillors to the United World Peace Empire to the number designated unanimously by the World Peace Councillors then in office.

"ARTICLE 13:—The powers not delegated to the United World Peace Empire by this United World Peace Empire Magna Carta are reserved to the Commonwealths respectively or to their peoples".

While the "World Government Foundation's" constitution is more specific in its treatment of the executive and legislative mechanisms for a proposed world government, it reminds one of Russell W. Davenport's "Area of Freedom" prospectus described in the August, 1941, issue of "Fortune" magazine. (See Bulletin No. 143). Mr. Davenport did not discuss "His Excellency the World Peace Potentate" or the "World Peace Supreme Council" but he did take up a phase of political internationalism under a section of his article bearing the sub-caption, "An International Party". Mr. Davenport referred to a tentative platform suitable for an international political party which would not be out of place in the election of such a world government machine as is contemplated by the "World Government Foundation's" constitution.

For instance, the "Fortune" article suggests that the International Party includes the following as one of the planks in its platform:

"The International party invites all peoples who have, or who earnestly desire, freedom to join in creating a new political area, which shall be called the Area of Freedom. The essential principles of this Area will be: that the people of each member state acknowledge the possession, in common with other peoples of the area, of certain principles and values indispensable to liberty; that they therefore acknowledge certain responsibilities, whether political, economic, or moral, to the peoples of all the other states; that they will accordingly forego, in the interests of the whole, the exercise of certain of their supposedly sovereign rights and privileges; and that such rights and privileges shall hereafter be exercised only with the consent and approval of all the Freedom peoples. . . ." (pages 133 and 140.)

The "World Government Foundation", "Union Now", Fortune's "Area of Freedom" and the "Atlantic Charter" could be dovetailed so perfectly, one with another, that each one could constitute a part of the same mosaic. While the foregoing Magna Carta reads like an international financier's or an international business man's pipe dream, it in no way violates either the spirit or substance of the Roosevelt-Churchill "Atlantic Charter" or the plan for the "Area of Freedom" as interpreted by the gentleman who was attached to Wendell Willkie to make sure that the latter would not go astray during his presidential campaign.

When we are reminded that some of our highest administration officials are known to be in favor of such international schemes, when others high in new deal circles sign their names to huge newspaper ads endorsing a plan for world government, and when powerful newspapers throw their editorial weight towards the revision of our own Constitution and the drafting of a declaration of interdependence to take the place of our Declaration of Independence, the "World Government Foundation's" prospectus ceases to remain a joke. For professional politicians, however, there would be a redeeming feature. Think of the international boondoggling, of the international political campaigns, and the international pork barrels!

Nicholas Roerich Inspired Its Promoter

The flag proposed by the "World Government Foundation" for the new world order which it seeks to establish is an American flag with a design similar to the British Union Jack substituted for the star field in the upper left hand corner. Then, on the left hand end of the flag is added a design containing a large circle with three small spheres inside. This design, while called the "Peace Circle", reminds one of a pawn broker's cluster of three balls and would be appropriate in that under such a world program the people of our Republic would be pawning their liberties and resources to the sovereignty of international finance. According to a prospectus for the "World Government Foundation", the design came about in the following manner:

"This conception of a 'Peace Circle' came from Davis' attendance as a delegate at the 'Third International Convention, Roerich Pact and Banner of Peace', Washington, D. C., November 17-18, 1933. This banner has come to be known as the 'Red Circle' whose history is given below. From this 'Red Circle' grew the 'Peace Circle'." Charles Henry Davis, founder and trustee.)

No doubt, Davis' interest in Roerich is only slight but as will be shown later, this same design follows a number-pattern that is becoming too prevalent in different new deals throughout the world to be passed over very lightly. Maybe a word about Nicholas Roerich would not be amiss.

According to an article written by Serge Whitman in 1925: "We who search the paths of international understanding and the structure of universal peace, must look upon Roerich as the apostle and forerunner of the new world of all nations". ("The Trail Of The Serpent", p. 301.) Roerich's writings reveal his preference for those oriental philosophies that are incompatible with the Christian doctrine responsible for the liberties heretofore associated with western civilization. Roerich is a mysterious figure with world wide activities and connections in the realm of occultism and his influence has extended to others having a great deal to say in our national affairs.

In his book, "New Frontiers", published in 1934, Henry Wallace adopted the three-ball symbol. On page 279 of his book he told where he got it. He got it from Roerich! Raoul Desvernine, in his book entitled "Democratic Despotism", commented on the fact that Wallace's philosophy as revealed in "New Frontiers" was also the philosophy of Dr. Tugwell's "Third Economy". Mr. Desvernine then proceeded to call our attention to the universal manner in which collectivist formulas were associated with the number three. Not only was there the "Third Economy", but the world was afflicted with Hitler's "Third Reich" and Stalin's "Third International". There is also the tripartite nature of Mussolini's Corporationism. The use of the three-ball symbol to designate one of the widely ballyhoo plans for world government is not very comforting.

Initiating Campaigns—1914 and 1941

The Roosevelt-Churchill meeting in August of 1941 with its resulting Atlantic Charter was the event that seems to have inspired those behind the "World Government Foundation" to swing into high gear. It was what they had been waiting for. Forthwith a World Government Convention was held at the World Fellowship Center at Conway, N. H., August 31, 1941, under the auspices of "World Fellowship, Inc." The Honorary Chairman of the World Government Foundation, Dr. Irving Fisher, was the principal speaker and on him fell the task of passing on to those assembled, an outline of the objectives for which they were to work. Dr. Fisher declared that the world government program for which they were to labor was politically implementing Roosevelt's and Churchill's Atlantic Charter. Once again, we are to watch the development, noted in all great movements directed towards the establishment of a financial world empire, from moral appeals to a definite and all-inclusive economic plan.

Numbers are not the only things to show a persistency of recurrence in the politics of internationalism. Sometimes certain individuals are given preference when it comes to fulfilling certain definite roles throughout the course of years. Dr. Fisher is evidently an acceptable lead-off man in world government campaigns for the newspaper item describing the world government convention, also included the following paragraphs:

"As a graduate student in 1890, Dr. Fisher presented a paper before the Yale Political Science Club that argues that future wars were inevitable unless they were headed off by some effective international government.

"On the basis of this paper, he published an article in THE NEW YORK TIMES of Aug. 16, 1914, soon after the outbreak of the war, calling for the 'League of Peace' to be organized upon its close. With Hamilton Holt he began in 1914 the series of conferences which eventuated in the League to Enforce Peace, before which Woodrow Wilson first announced his proposed League of Nations". ("The New York Times", Sept. 1, 1941.)

"World Government Foundation" and "Union Now" campaigns are simply a revival of the "League of Nations" campaign twenty-five years ago. If you have them handy, this would be a good time for you to review Bulletins 137-139 inclusive. Those issues described a series of organizations which were progressively developed from the "New York Peace Society" through the "League to Enforce Peace" and the "League of Free Nations Association" to the "Foreign Policy Association". These organizations were referred to in those three bulletins in subject matter appearing under the title: "The Soviet Lobby In America". In that series of organizations which handled the campaign for the "League of Nations" in this country, could also be noted a persistent campaign for, first the establishment and later the protection of, the communist regime which was to take the leadership in directing the program for world wide revolution and international socialism. By taking note of the relationship between world government programs and world communist programs it is with less difficulty that we understand the gift of the two billions of dollars to Stalin, the permitting of communist controlled labor racketeers to interfere with our defense and war efforts, the removal of those who are known to be anti-Marxian from responsible positions in the executive and administrative departments, and the attempts to disrupt our industrial and economic structure to the greatest possible extent.

Dr. Fisher was well qualified for outlining a program for the new world order acceptable to the socialists. According to "Who's Who In America", he was a lecturer at the London School of Economics and Political Science which was founded by the Fabians and the purpose of which was to "train the bureaucracy for the future Socialist State". The internationalists have no reason to complain of his fifty years of service, much of which has been given for the cause of socialism.

So far, the "World Government Foundation" propaganda machine is still in its infancy. A large number of supporting councils and associations are being rapidly organized or revived on paper and one can be safe in predicting that in the not too distant future, there will be an array of committees that will be quite devastating. At the present time the aforementioned Charles H. Davis, Irving Fisher and Darwin J. Meserole appear to be the most active of those openly promoting it.

Many of you doubtless thought that the constitution, proposed by the "World Government Foundation" and reproduced in the preceding bulletin, sounded like an internationalist's brain-storm; that it was only for fictional purposes and not apt to be taken seriously by anyone with any real influence with our administration. This is only wishful thinking. "World Fellowship, Inc.," of which "World Government Foundation" is an auxiliary, has a very long and imposing list of National Advisors. Furthermore, it must be distinguished from "Union Now" with respect to its major objectives. Many of the forces behind "World Fellowship, Inc.," when past activities are analyzed, are working for world government in the fullest sense of the term. They are not working to preserve the British Empire intact as are the backers of "Union Now". They are seeking, indirectly, to destroy the British Empire as it stands today. They want to see British possessions become independent members of the commonwealth. Those behind "Union Now" want to keep the British Empire fully intact but they also seek to merge it and our Republic. While their objectives differ somewhat, they both have the same obstacle to overcome which is the sovereign independence of both the British Commonwealth and our Republic.

"World Fellowship, Inc."

As has already been shown, the propaganda literature put out by the "World Government Foundation" states that it is an auxiliary of the "World Fellowship, Inc." whose founder and president is Charles Frederick Weller. According to its letterhead, "World Fellowship, Inc." was started in 1918. "Who's Who in America" credits Charles Frederick Weller with the founding of the organization but it doesn't give any date for its creation. Inasmuch as Mr Weller was one of the co-founders of the "Fellowship of Faiths" which was later developed into the World Fellowship of Faith in 1933, the "World Fellowship, Inc." appears to be simply the 1933 version of Weller's organization plus another extension in the scope of its activities. The history of Mr. Weller's activities is a history of "World Fellowship, Inc."

In 1910 Kedarnath Das Gupta, a native of Eastern Bengal, organized the "Union of East and West". Das Gupta was assisted in this venture by such prominent figures as H. G. Wells, Mrs. Annie Besant and Keir Hardie. Of course there were others but these three are indicative of its type of leadership. Wells was a Fabian-Socialist, member of "Clarte", and active in the "Society for Cultural Relations with Soviet Russia". Hardie, a tool of Friedrich Engels who was Marx's collaborator, founded the Independent Labour Party in England in 1893. Mrs. Annie Besant, a Fabian, was a disciple of Madam Blavatsky. Madam Blavatsky was prominent in revolutionary circles and had been initiated into the Carbonari by Mazzini. She claimed to receive direction from the "Great White Lodge" which was claimed to be the occult hierarchy which "secretly governs the world". She was introduced to Mrs. Besant by the English socialist Herbert Burrows and Mrs. Besant was later to follow him in Madam Blavatsky's footsteps, assuming the leadership of the Theosophical Society upon the latter's death.

An important point to keep in mind at this time is that the occult side of the Fabian movement, as it functioned through the activities of theosophical leaders under the direction of Mrs. Besant, had for its purpose the disintegration of the Asiatic part of the British Empire beginning with India. Mrs. Besant's "Co-Masonry", which was organized as an offshoot of the "Theosophical Society", served as a cover under which the directors of the Indian Home Rule agitation could function. (See Bulletin No. 44). As was pointed out in Bulletin No. 33, most of the directors of the London newspapers published by the "Socialist Publishing Company" were members of London theosophical organizations or "Co-Masonry". We therefore find that the socialist activities in the English labor movement and the Indian Home Rule agitation were synchronized and gave each other mutual support.

Charles Frederick Weller, a socialist, founded the "League of Neighbors" in 1920 according to "Who's Who In America". While he succeeded in getting the names of many prominent individuals listed as its endorsers, the real support came from a group of radicals to be found in such organizations as the "American Civil Liberties Union" and it was they who were to exert the greatest influence over Weller's organization. Socialist sympathizers from all faiths gave support to it. Rabbi Stephen Wise, Father John A. Ryan, Upton Sinclair and Madam Sun Yat Sen were among them.

In 1924 the "Union of East and West" and the "League of Neighbors" were merged in a new organization known as the "Fellowship of Faiths". This organization was described in Bulletin No. 33. It held its first World Congress in Chicago in 1933 and the meeting was noted for its socialist and communist complexion. The star speaker was Bishop William Montgomery Brown who, besides being national chairman of the communist "Workers' International Relief" at the time, belonged to a number of communist directed organizations. At the close of one of his addresses he stated that: "If World-Unity is to be attained it must be through International Communism, which can only be arrived at by the slogan 'Banish the Gods from the Skies and the Capitalists from the Earth'. Then, and then only, will there exist a complete World Fellowship of Faiths".

After the applause, Charles Weller arose and asked the "Bishop" to repeat his concluding remarks after which Weller thanked him, ending his own statement with: "I want to say that I am in thorough agreement with the sentiments as expressed by Bishop Brown". Bishop Brown's addresses before the Congress were later printed for the communists in pamphlet form under the title "Communism—The New Faith For The New World".

Many members of the British section of the "Fellowship of Faiths" were also members of the "Friends of the U.S. S. R." Among them were to be found such leaders as Sir Norman Angell and the Dean of Canterbury. Other British supporters included the Rt. Hon. Herbert Samuel and Lord Halifax.

We are threatened with more than world government. We are faced with the threat of a new world order in which the same forces that inspired and guided the Russian debacle will play an important part. If these forces are allowed to have their own way we will have world government under which an attempt will be made to "Banish God from the Skies and the Capitalists from the Earth". Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

CHATS - By the Editor

Following the blast in 'Life' magazine for April 13th, and the Winchell smear of April 19th (at which time I was in San Francisco), an officer from Sacramento County called with a subpoena in which I was commanded to present myself at a Grand Jury hearing on April 28th in the case of Robert Noble, Ellis O. Jones and some of their associates.

I was in Sacramento two days; my testimony took about 30 minutes; but it had little or nothing to do with Noble or Jones. It was my understanding that a Grand Jury session was secret and sacred; but the Sacramento and other papers carried items from testimony given, including my own, which, by the way, was flatly contradictory to the 'Voices of Defeat' article in Life magazine. Of course readers know we attached a mimeographed sheet to the January number regarding the war, which was anything but a statement of defeatism. If you check the statements in Life with my statements in the January number you will see how they were distorted; of course they were just intended as a smear, to be followed up, they hoped, by an investigation.

I would have no trouble in proving that Winchell and Life made libelous statements about me; and as we have a goodly number of attorneys who read The Beacon Light I would appreciate their opinion on the matter. Remember, I have no money for legal defense or prosecution; and you attorneys are also Americans, and Christians, I hope; so do your stuff.

NOTE: We have just received a shipment from England, which, incidentally will be the last, for we have to pay for all lost shipments. This shipment includes The Socialist Network, for which we have had many calls recently.

It also includes a supply of The Great Pyramid's Prophecy Concerning The British Empire and America (Note new price 75c.) We have been out of this for some time, and unable to fill a number of orders for it.

WALTER WINCHELL

The Editor of The Beacon Light has been flayed by Red sheets and magazines and Red and Pink radio commentators.

Now they say a man is known by the company he keeps. The blasts by Winchell and Life magazine are identical, word for word, with the story that appears in the various Communist sheets throughout the nation, showing conclusively the Red tie-up. As a matter of fact the first blast as far as I can trace, came from a so-called labor paper in San Francisco; I believe the name was The People's World. I have the item somewhere amidst an avalanche of press clippings. And so you see Walter Winchell gets his inspiration from the Communist press.

Walter Winchell is in very bad company; for I have before me the whole Red set-up wherein the Communists plot to use the war to overthrow our American form of government.

Now if Winchell is looking for treason, let him search the records of his pals from whom he gets his inspiration. As far back as February, 1937, Stalin, speaking at Moscow, warned that Russia must prepare for war with capitalist countries; he called for world wide co-operation of workers in all nations, to insure final victory for Socialism (Communism). Could anything be clearer than that? This is only one of hundreds of quotations from their books and papers.

And now if you will turn to your Christian Bible and read the 38th and 39th chapters of Ezekiel, you will see that your Christian Bible also testifies as to the real intent of Soviet Russia. The Bible clearly states that Russia and Germany will fight together, and not each other, in the end. And so, this is the program of those with whom Walter Winchell is affiliated.

Let me give you another quotation of Stalin's:

"I consider that the Communist Party of the United States is one of the few Communist Parties to which history has given decisive tasks from the point of view of the world revolutionary movement. The revolutionary crisis has not yet reached the United States, but we already have knowledge of numerous facts which suggest that it is approaching.

"It is necessary that the American Communist Party should be capable of meeting the moment of crisis fully equipped to take direction of the future class wars in the United States. You must prepare for that, comrades, with all your strength and by every means; you must constantly improve and bolshevise the American Communist Party. You must forge real revolutionary cadres and leaders of the proletariat who will be capable of leading the millions of American workers toward the revolutionary class wars". ("Communist International", Russian edition, March 20, 1930; U. S. Gov. Report No. 2290, p. 8)". And he ends up with "'Forward to victory!'"

And whose victory does Stalin hail? "Our victory". A Soviet Union-Communist Party victory. A victory for what? A victory for the only cause that Stalin knows: a world revolution, the triumph of Soviet power over all nations, the establishment of Communism throughout the earth, a Communist dictatorship over all the peoples of the world, and a Communist Party-Soviet Union capital at Moscow.

And so Stalin and the Bible agree as to the end of the present struggle; our Christian Bible says this is a spiritual war between the forces of darkness and the forces of light. As St. Paul says, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And now for a little history of Walter Winchell. His scurrilous remarks over the air have brought an avalanche of lawsuits. Elizabeth Diling, author of The Red Network, is suing him for a million dollars for the vile remarks he made about her over the air. Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, owner of the Washington Times-Herald, has filed suit for $100,000 as punitive damages for remarks which she said were defamatory, and another $100,000 as compensation from Winchell, his radio sponsor and a broadasting company which broadcast the program.

And now we will give you a quotation from the Congressional Record, which speaks for itself:

"Scavenger" Winchell

The following exchange of remarks occurred February 13th, on the floor of the House of Representatives . . as reported in the Congressional Record:

Mr. Hoffman: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 1 minute.

The Speaker: Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. Hoffman: Mr. Speaker, the distinguished gentleman from Georgia, chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, has just rendered us a very note worthy service in quoting the record with reference to Lieutenant Roosevelt. There is another topic on which he can give some information. I want to ask him if he will be so kind as to inform us about Lieutenant Commander Winchell, who, it is reported, gets $5000 a broadcast once a week on a radio program, advertising a hand lotion and peddling dirty gossip, and does it in the uniform of a lieutenant commander in the Navy. Now, I may be wrong about that, and I wish the gentleman would give us information on his record tomorrow.

Mr. Vinson of Georgia: I can tell the gentleman about that now. I have advised the Navy Department either to call him to active duty or disenroll him.

Mr. Hoffman: I thank the gentleman.

On March 3, 1942, Congressman Hoffman again asked and obtained permission to address the House. His remarks were as follows:

Mr. Speaker, some of the boys in the Press Gallery suggested that Walter Winchell was coming down here to find out just how he could serve in the Navy. My thought would be that in view of his past experience and operations there might be in the Navy some division corresponding to the scavenger department, in which he has been operating, and he might get in that. He is fully qualified for that from past experience".

copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

Now remember, Walter Winchell is a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy. You will ask, 'How Come?' If you will read the reports of the Dies Committee as to the hordes of Reds in key positions in the Government, you will understand why.

At the present time, patriotic Americans all over the nation are receiving subpoenas from State and Federal courts. It is a program of intimidation. See the article in this issue on Senate Bill 2399, and you will understand my predictions in the January Beacon Light, that the Administration does not intend an election this year.

✗ But, the Administration is counting without the Higher Powers. God Almighty is going to play the last card in this game; and when He plays it, there will be nothing left of the New Deal and the Red hordes in the nation.

FREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS, ASSEMBLY IN DANGER

✗ Regardless of opinions, it is the imperative duty of every American to fight to the last ditch to prevent the passage of Senate Bill 2399, for upon this bill hinges the last vestige of Constitutional Government.

✗ This Bill, S-2399 is at present in the Judiciary Committee of the House, and, if passed, it is our studied opinion, will empower the Attorney General to imprison even a Member of Congress for criticizing the Administration's foreign policies.

✗ In England, where a similar bill was passed, hundreds of loyal Englishmen and Members of Parliament, for the first time in the history of England, have been placed in concentration camps. Not only are these people unable to ascertain the charges against them to warrant such imprisonment, but no one, not even a High Justice, a Member of Parliament, Attorney or relative may see such charges. All protests have thus far been unavailing, according to the "Weekly Patriot", published in London.

✗ Since many of the present Administration's activities parallel those of England—the Bill S-2399 holds the same threat to Americans that the English Law holds for Englishmen.

✗ Originally S Bill 2399 was S Bill 2060—this bill was passed on the same day in both Senate and House without a record vote and without debate on Section J—just prior to last Christmas. The President sent S Bill 2060 back for modification and it is now due to come before the House as S Bill 2399.

Section J. of this Bill reads:—

✗ "The term 'political propaganda' includes ANY oral, visual, graphic, written, political or other communication or expression by ANY person (1) which is reasonably adapted to or which the person disseminating the same believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce or in any way influence a recipient or any section of the public within the U. S., with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party or with reference to the foreign policies of the United States or promote in the U. S., racial, religious or social dissensions, or (2) which advocates, advises, instigates, or promotes any racial, social, political or religious disorder, civil riot, or any other conflict involving the use of force or violence in any other American Republic or the overthrow of any government or political subdivision of any other American Republic or the overthrow of any government or political subdivision of any other American Republic by any means involving the use of force or violence. As used in this Section I (J) the term 'disseminating' includes transmitting or causing to be transmitted in the U. S. Mails or by any means or instrumentality of interstate or foreign commerce or offering or causing to be offered in the U. S. Mails; . . . "

✗ "Section 8 (a) ANY person who wilfully violates ANY provision of THIS ACT or ANY regulation thereunder . . . shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years or both".

Obviously, in our estimation, S. Bill 2399 gives the Attorney General unlimited power to fine and imprison any person found guilty even talking to a person or group in a critical way about the communists in America or Russia. Any remarks or printed matter or writings, even quotations from the Bible, could be called "promoting racial, religious or social dissension".

In our opinion, should Senate Bill 2399 become a law, it could be used to stop the preaching of Christianity—as was done in Russia, the Godless nation and whose world-wide political activities would be protected in this un-Constitutional bill.

✗ Therefore, we earnestly recommend that every American deluge their Congressmen with demands to BLOCK THE PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL 2399—NOW—BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE.

✗ After reading the above re-read our Predictions in the January Beacon Light in which we stated that the Administration did not intend that a free untrammelled election be held this year.

✗ Right now patriots are being thrown into jail all over this nation and if this Bill passes it will hog-tie every Christian project in the land. You could not even quote your Christian Bible. Newspapers could not comment on the activities of the Reds in key positions in the Government. Chairman Dies of the Dies Committee could be convicted of treason for his disclosures of the men and women in the Government who are pledged to overthrow this Government by force.

✗ The present state of affairs is being brought about by the cowardly actions of the people of this nation. The pitiful support we have received in ten years is evidence, also the cowardly letters cancelling subscriptions after the Winchell and Life blasts. Fortunately all are not in that class. This is the evidence of spiritual degeneracy here in America.

✗ This is the last stronghold of liberty and freedom as guaranteed by our Christian Bible and the Constitution with the Bill of Rights. This Bill S-2399, even if passed is absolutely un-Constitutional and should it pass, patriotic individuals and organizations and also the big newspapers will surely fight it in the courts because the Constitution of the United States of America is the supreme law of the land. Only the voice of the people can make S-2399 the law of the land. In order to do this, it must be made into an Amendment to the Constitution. This must then be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

✗ In the meantime, where do you stand in this fight?

✗ Remember, this means everybody, and will include the clergy of all denominations who are not pro-New Deal.

✗ ICKES WRITES AN UNPRINTABLE LETTER

From Defender Magazine for March, 1942

During the dark and tumultuous years that the New Deal has remained shackled upon the American people by the use of bribery, chicanery, demagoguery and intimidation, the public utterances of no man of Washington has more perfectly reflected the decadent state of the Nation's political structure than those of Harold L. Ickes.

✗ For blatant vulgarity, obnoxious speech and childlike behavior, Ickes' equal has never been known in any previous Administration. When cornered or criticized, he invariably resorts to profanity, and fogs the atmosphere with the kind of language one might expect to hear in the slums of New York's East Side.

The most recent example of what decent citizens would not expect from a Cabinet member, was discussed on the floor of Congress by Clare E. Hoffman, late last month.

Mr. Hoffman, a defender of old fashioned Americanism, represents the Fourth Congressional District of Michigan, in the House of Representatives.

✗ Congressmen listened in shocked silence as Mr. Hoffman read publicly a typical Ickes' letter, sent recently to the editor of a small New England newspaper. Sections of the missive were so vile that they could not be printed. The portions deemed printable without violating postal laws against obscenity, is as follows:

"Washington, D. C., February 2, 1942

✗ Mr. Robert M. Sperry,
Publisher, Bridgeport Life,
Bridgeport, Conn.
Dear Sir:

A man whom I do not know has sent to me a tear sheet from your issue of Saturday, July 26, 1941. My correspondent speaks of your "filthy mind and paper", and he also seems to think that you are a coward. Undoubtedly he is right on all scores. The impression seems to be that the filth in this editorial surged up from the cesspool that passes with you for a mind. However, it doesn't much matter whether you actually wrote the thing or not; as publisher you are responsible.

I don't know you and had never heard of you until this letter came. Now, although I still have never met you, I feel that I know you very well as a cowardly, skulking cur.

(At this point Ickes vented his spleen in virulent terms regarded by journalists as being wholly unprintable.)

The letter closed as follows:

'It is undoubtedly perfectly natural for you to think the putrid thoughts which you naturally express in the language of the gutter.

Harold L. Ickes,
Secretary of the Interior".

* * *

Mr. Hoffman explained that he regretted having to add such material to the enduring records of the United States Congress but said he believed the matter worthy of the attention of the House of Representatives. He also suggested that steps be taken to "disinfect, fumigate, and, if possible, render innocuous" the Secretary's utterances.

The Ickes letter was published in the February 14th issue of the Bridgeport Life, accompanied by the following reply by the Editor, Mr. Robert M. Sperry:

"[Had this letter been written by an inebriated derelict from the slums, the language would have caused it to be relegated to the waste basket, but written as it was by a supereducated member of the President's Cabinet, we pass it along to show the revengeful temper of its author. . .

"His (Ickes') opinion of editors and the press has been well established. The freedom of the press has long been one of his pet peeves. Mr. Ickes has proved in his letter that should President Roosevelt ever drop him as he did Jim Farley, he can get a job as columnist on a tabloid or run Walter Winchell a close second on the radio. His vocabulary in the lower brackets assures him this. . .

✱ "With what little freedom there is left to the press, Mr. Ickes, permit us to maintain that we have a right to think that, if we hurl a stone at a gang of dogs, the one doing the yelping is the one we think we hit. So keep on writing, you are going places. The place we will leave to your own selection".

Incidents of this kind come as a solemn reminder that the year 1942 finds the United States passing through a moral sag—a period of spiritual declension. Only a rebuilding of the Nation's character and revitalizing of the national conscience, will deliver America from the scourge reflected in the Ickes' psychology and type of leadership.

FROM A COLONEL:

"The Beacon Light" certainly is well named. Yes, it is a spark of truth that glimmers in these days of confusion. It is the light that guides the ships of truth-seeking people to the shores of happiness and personal liberty.

Keep up the fine work, and you will be rewarded in the very near future, when Christian Nationalism will once again sweep this country from all directions of the compass. That will be the day when the international robbers will be cast into the sea. Then we here in America will look up to God and say, Thy Will Be Done, Thy Kingdom Come.

May God's blessings be with all the co-workers of The Beacon Light and may you go on casting the light of truth across this land of ours. Long live the Constitution of the United States and long live Christ the King".

WHOM ARE YOU FOLLOWING?

I have received a great many letters of late asking me to help different men in the field. For instance, I received a long letter from a lady in Los Angeles asking me to help Robert Noble and Ellis Jones. Unfortunately, I can not comply with her wish. I have never met these men. All I know of them is what I read in the daily papers. I agree with their criticisms of the Administration, but there is a gulf between us. On his own confession Ellis Jones is not basically a Christian. He does not believe in Christianity, is materialistic; and so we have no common bond.

If the report of the Tenney investigation is correct, these men are not even American, for Robert Noble stated at the trial that he was pro-German and pro-Japanese. I have never been pro-German and never pro-Japanese. I have always been pro-American and pro-Christian, and so we have practically nothing in common.

Personally, I think that these men are mixed up in their own minds as to what they are fighting for. How can one fight Christianity and be pro-American? I can understand their fighting the so-called Christianity racket. I judge there are many who do that, I do myself. But Christian fundamentals are something else, and American fundamentals have their roots in Christian fundamentals. So leaders of this kind are bound to fail because they are unsound. They will run afoul of the laws of the land, and rightly so.

They will also run afoul of the spiritual law which is even more devastating. If ever there was a time when we needed to know that the roots of our belief run down into the fundamentals of Christianity and Americanism, it is now.

I am sorry for these men and I pray that their eyes may be opened to the light.

There are many other men and women in the field that the above criticism could apply to; well-meaning, but ignorant of the fundamental laws.

Then there are those who are inciting others against National Defense. That is treason in war-time, and it is also a violation of spiritual law. The Bible makes provision for national defense, making special reference to the Israel nations. Israel was to be numbered for war, which was the same as our conscription. In Numbers 1: 2 and 3 and 26:2 we see that Israel was numbered.

"Take ye the sum of all the congregation (all the nation) of the Children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male, by their polls; from twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel, thou and Aaron shall number them by their hosts".

And again, we read, "Take the sum of all the congregation of the Children of Israel from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' houses, all that are able to go forth to war".

At this time war was always offensive, because as long as Israel kept faith with Jehovah, obeying His laws, they were always defended and protected. It was only when they broke faith and wandered away that their enemies had any power over them. Their defense was their faith in Jehovah and ours could be the same if we kept the laws of God.

Now these men who are pro-Russian, pro-German, pro-Italian or pro-Japanese do not know the Bible. God has a definite plan for the leading nations of this world. There has always been such a nation carrying in advance the torch. For instance, for many centuries it was carried by England and then by her Empire. At the time of the American Revolution that torch was taken across the Atlantic Ocean. It is now the possession of the United States of America. After this conflict this country and Canada will be one nation. The Empire will be gone and England reduced to a fourth rate power. We have, at times allowed the torch of truth to burn very dim.

In the meantime Australia has been watching us very closely and has been getting inspiration from us as much as from England. We prophesied that three or four years ago. I think that was in October, 1939. There is going to be a very close tie between Australia, New Zealand and the United States of America. And in addition to Canada it would not surprise me to see Mexico in the picture.

Now you can see that, believing as I do, I can not help any man or woman who runs afoul of the laws of the land or of the spiritual laws. I do not condemn them, I am sorry for any one who sins through ignorance. My attitude toward them is exactly the same as that toward Jewry. They, too, violate both the American and the Israel laws.

But there are some men and women in the field to whom I feel I must extend a helping hand, not that I agree entirely with them in their platform, but because they are real Americans and they do believe in Christian ethics. Many of them have erroneous ideas, believing in the vicarious atonement and other doctrines to which I can not subscribe and which Jesus did not teach. The futuristic views of the interpretation of prophecy are Babylonian, but they know it not.

They certainly are not Christian. This doctrine is a part of the Roman Catholic set-up.

✕ At the present time every one who dares to speak the truth is subject to pressure. Now Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling is having a cruel smearing at the hands of the Synagogue of Satan through its various emissaries. Mrs. Dilling is a 100 per cent American patriot. She has done much to awaken people through her Bulletins and books. She has been smeared primarily because she is the author of The Red Network and The Roosevelt Red Record. Those two valuable books have made those in high places squirm, and they are determined to silence her at any cost; but I do not think they will ever succeed.

✕ Rev. Gerald B. Winrod had his family torn asunder by individuals who would stop at nothing. They have smeared him unmercifully. His conceptions of Christianity differ from mine, but that makes no difference. I believe he is conscientious and sincere, and living up to the light he has, as is Mrs. Dilling. They are both working for the preservation of Christian America, and because of this they are entitled to our support.

✕ Down in San Diego we have one of the bravest men I have ever contacted. Not only is he brave and fearless, but he is highly intelligent. He has an education in national and world affairs such as few men possess. Naturally a man whose life is dedicated to truth will make enemies, and C. Leon De Aryan, Editor of "The Broom" certainly has made them. He is also one of the kindest and most generous men that I have ever met. Although born a Greek, I know of no one who is more zealous as a Christian American patriot than is De Aryan. This man is worth in dollars and cents, a million dollars to the City of San Diego, and to the nation at large, money beyond my ability to compute. The powers of darkness, through their vassals, are striving desperately to still his voice, and it would surely be a tragedy for them to succeed. I do not believe they will, for De Aryan leans heavily on the arm of God. I have never met his equal in that respect.

✕ His views and mine are very similar, we have a great deal in common. Of course, we differ in some things, but that is our privilege. Now they are trying to strip him of his citizenship for no other reason than that he takes that duty in dead earnest. Would to God we had more De Aryan's. We need them, just as we need more Elizabeth Dillings and Gerald B. Winrods.

Of course, there are many others in the field whom I have mentioned from time to time. It would take too long to enumerate them all. Right now Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling and De Aryas are having an especially tough time. If these two go down it will be a tragic loss to this Republic. We need more such torches of truth, not fewer.

The common enemies think they are going to extinguish the various torches carried by these men and women. I am firmly convinced that they will not succeed because God is in full command, and his Satanic Majesty is steadily losing power, even as the "little brown men" fight in a losing cause in the Pacific and the mighty Mussolini, now on his last legs, has become a mere vassal of Germany and her dictator.

The world is now being judged, and the evil forces can not possibly win, in spite of outward appearances. So I am going to ask you to use discrimination as to the men and women you support. Be sure that you follow no one who is not pro-American and pro-Christian, otherwise, you, too, will land where they do, in the junk pile.

During the past week there has been running through my head this quotation from the Letter to the Ephesians, written by Paul. It was impressed on me during my visit to San Francisco a few days ago. As there was no Gideon Bible in the hotel, I looked it up when I reached home. You understand why some hotels have no Bibles. Here is the complete quotation:

THE WHOLE ARMOR OF GOD. Ephesians 6:10-18

"Finally be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might. Put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world rulers of darkness, against the spiritual wickedness in the heavenly places.

"Wherefore take up the whole armor of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand.

"Stand, therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace. Withal taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God: with all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the spirit and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints".

I hope you will memorize it because it will give you renewed strength. Now, as I see it, if you accept our platform, you must stand fearlessly with the men and women who are fighting our battles. Remember, if you don't, it will be of no avail to ask God to help you with your problems. God only helps those who stand by His disciples, those who dare to carry the torch of liberty and truth constantly before them.

In this connection I suggest you read our article on spiritual preparation in The Beacon Light for September, 1939, for it tells in detail how to get spiritual protection.

There are not many hours left of this old dispensation, and if you continue to compromise with evil, you will be definitely tied and destroyed with it. This is the law and not my opinion. So for your own protection, take your stand with the God-fearing group of Americans who are bravely proclaiming the truth about national affairs and spiritual law.

Perhaps, even before this is in print, God is going to speak through the elements in a way that will strike terror to the Administration and all who work for them. Again I say "Read the Preparation Number" and also "Why Physical Disasters?" in the April Number for 1940.

"When you see these things come to pass, rejoice, for your redemption draweth nigh". (Luke 21:28).

MORE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON THE CONSTITUTION

By HUDSON De PRIEST, in Defender Magazine

1. QUESTION. What determines and establishes the American form of government?

ANSWER. The Constitution.

2. QUESTION. Does the Constitution permit free discussion of all public questions, and of men and measures, in both war and peace?

ANSWER. Yes fully and freely. There can be no abridgement either of speech or writing as long as the Bill of Rights endures. During the Civil War, there was free discussion, pro and con, regarding the war effort, President Lincoln and others, by citizens of the North, and occasionally words of sympathy for the South.

3. QUESTION. Were these things permissible under the Constitution?

ANSWER. Absolutely permissible. The Supreme Court of that day decided as follows: "The Constitution of the United States is a law for rulers and people, equally in war and peace, and covers with the shield of its protection all classes of men, at all times, under all circumstances. No doctrine involving more pernicious consequences was ever devised by the wit of man, than that any of its provisions can ever be suspended during any of the great exigencies of government".

4. QUESTION. Suppose for instance, that a Representative or Senator were to rise from his seat in Congress and denounce an occupant of the White House as a "stooge of foreign interests" or as an "enemy of the people", could the President order his arrest or sue him for libel?

ANSWER. No. Our wise forefathers not only guaranteed free speech for all citizens in the Amended Bill of Rights, but they doubly protected the Senators and Representatives from despotism, by inserting in the original Constitution, Article I, Sec. 6, Clause 1, these words: "For any speech or debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other place".

5. QUESTION. Does the Constitution mention the words "Political", "party", or "nominating convention"?

ANSWER. No. Provision was not made in the Constitution for political parties or politics. The founding fathers considered such things evil, a failure throughout history, and destructive of representative institutions. President Washington in his Farewell Address referred to party politics as perpetrating the "most horrid enormities" and predicted a "formal and permanent despotism" if the destiny of the government should, at a future time, be shaped under such management. Our Fathers believed in wise representative government, and thought that citizens should elect self-supporting representatives who were statesmen at heart, interested in home and country, beyond the level of serving a political oligarchy as a means of livelihood.

6. QUESTION. Does the Constitution provide for the election of the President by the people?

ANSWER. It most emphatically does not, and the first six Presidents were not elected by the people. They were selected by "Electors", and these men were the ablest Executives ever to serve the Nation.

7. QUESTION. Were the early Electors chosen by vote of the people?

ANSWER. No. They were "appointed" by the legislatures, as the Constitution provides in Article 2, Sec. 1, Clause 2.

All the time the Constitutional delegates worked on the Constitution at Philadelphia, during May, June, July and August, 1787, they planned and assumed that the President would be elected by Congress. But as the session drew near an end in September and aversion to partyism increased, they devised a plan to lift the selection of a Chief Executive above the muck and mire of politics, by creating the position and function of a new group, never before known in world history—an "Electoral College", whose members would be charged with responsibility of selecting some great and able man to fill the high office. It was, and is, charged in the Constitution that the President pickers must be free from the control or influence of the Chief Executive, in other words: "No Senators or Representatives, or person holding AN OFFICE OF TRUST OR PROFIT UNDER THE UNITED STATES, shall be appointed an Elector".

Our ancestors never dreamed that the Electors would be emasculated, made into puppets by a political oligarchy. They knew that a direct vote by the people for the Presidency would result in demagoguery and corruption of the worst sort. They never visioned the Frankenstein monsters of these later days, known as political machines and party oligarchies.

8. QUESTION. Do national political conventions have the sanction of the Constitution or Federal law?

ANSWER. No. The national party conventions which met in Philadelphia and Chicago in 1940, for instance, were governed by no law, except as created by their own political hacks, heels and stooges.

9. QUESTION. Do the people have anything to say about the selection of presidential candidates or delegates to national political conventions?

ANSWER. Nothing in most States, and very little in others. There are approximately 3300 small oligarchies, or political machines, one for each county in the United States. The rank and file of the people have little to do with the selection of delegates to district, state and national conventions. It is well nigh impossible for a private citizen to obtain hearing before a platform committee of such conventions, or even gain admittance to the hall where a district gathering is being held.

The Democratic convention of 1940 at Chicago, was packed with Federal appointees, as well as Senators, Representatives and other political stooges, in direct violation of the spirit of the United States Constitution. The Republican convention of 1940 at Philadelphia, which selected a turncoat Democrat named Willkie, was a similar monstrosity. The enslaved delegates were pushed and shoved around like so many cattle. When the political heads got together, less than one-tenth of them really preferred Willkie and three-fourths were positively opposed to him. Remember that this convention, like the one in Chicago, was a non-Constitutional affair, governed by no statute, Federal or State.

10. QUESTION. In what chief respect was the Electoral system superior to the present non-legal convention system used in selecting the President?

ANSWER. The free Electors balloted for a President, and they selected the man they thought would make the best President. In a political convention the delegate stooges vote for the man they are told will be the greatest demagogue in courting votes from the lowest classes, also a man who will be a politician and reward them with soft jobs as units of his political machine. Electors pick statesmen, while party hacks and heels pick politicians and demagogues.

11. QUESTION. What is a political party?

ANSWER. "A political party is a substitute for revolution", says Professor Morse of Amherst in his book, "Parties and Party Leaders". Ballots are to be substituted for bullets. The government changes hands at the ballot box. But history affords no instance of the permanent success of any form of government which permits political hacks to pick a demagogue to direct the Country as he alone sees fit. Its end is always despotism because of the certain and sure tendency of the master faction to become an oligarchy, crushing organized opposition.

If the South had attained its independence in the American Civil War, the Slavery party of the South and the anti-Slavery party of the North, would each have become one party oligarchies in their respective nations. The South has long suffered under one-party political despotism (see W. H. Skagg's book, "The Southern Oligarchy"). White Republicans are today ostracized, in eight states where not one opposition vote exists in whole counties.

12. QUESTION. What are the weakest points of our Constitution?

X ANSWER. Failure to limit the tenure of the Presidential office, to designate the number of Supreme Court judges on the bench, and to require judicial experience for eligibility; also to provide against political oligarchies.

13. QUESTION. Who are the leading critics and opponents of our present Constitution?

X ANSWER. First, the Communists. Second, New Deal Socialists.

14. QUESTION. What did Vice President Wallace say about the Constitution in 1935?

X ANSWER. In his book, "Whose Constitution?", the last chapter, he says he hopes we can get rid of the old Constitution without bloodshed, and obtain a new one as easily as the first was adopted.

15. QUESTION. Can the United States be converted into a "Socialist Democracy" (or despotism) without amending the Constitution?

X ANSWER. No; not legally. The rights of free enterprise and private ownership are among the powers reserved to the people in the Constitution.

16. QUESTION. Can Congress tax the American people for the support of a foreign government?

X ANSWER. Not legally, without first amending the Constitution.

BOOK REVIEWS

X THOUGHTS THROUGH SPACE: By Sir Hubert Wilkins and Harold Sherman.

In such a materialistic age as we are living in, this is rather a comforting book because while it makes no pretense at being spiritual in character, it does place emphasis on something that is not material. Wilkins is known as a real-ist, as he must be to be an explorer, and yet he gives us a book of over 400 pages, which is history of telepathic messages between himself and Mr. Sherman.

Sir Hubert was in the Arctic searching for six lost Russian aviators, and Mr. Sherman was in New York City. The results are rather uncanny. I have been receiving telepathic messages nearly all of my life, so I know it can be done. It is a daily occurrence with me, so I am in position to know. In addition you get at first hand, the experiences of Wilkins.

This book will be accepted as a textbook; of that there is no doubt, because the calibre and prominence of the men and the uncanny occurrences will force its recognition and acceptance.

This is a fine book for the boy or girl who has been poisoned with the materialistic doctrines at college. Youngsters will enjoy it because it is fascinating to say the least. It is rather a massive volume of 421 pages and contains 11 illustrations including a portrait of Sir Hubert. It is attractively bound in cloth and sells for $4.50. This book will be selling when most of your best sellers are forgotten.

X THE ROAD TO VICTORY: By George E. Sullivan.

This is one of the most remarkable books that ever came to my desk. First the author is an attorney of note in Washington, D. C. Therefore he is a trained thinker. This book belongs with "The Talmud Unmasked", "The Octopus" and "The Roosevelt Red Record". My review will be brief because elsewhere I am printing a more detailed account from the pen of Gerald B. Winrod.

In 12 chapters covering 195 pages, Mr. Sullivan does the most concise and complete job I have ever seen. It also dovetails very nicely with the message of "National Destiny". Each helps to a better understanding of the other.

Not only is Sullivan a lawyer; he is a Roman Catholic. In this book he shows how the Jews are controlling the Roman Catholic Church. Briefly, he boils down all subversion and brings you back to its source, namely the Talmudic Traditions which Christ condemned so strongly almost two thousand years ago.

Of course, our Jewish friends will not like this. I do not see why, for all the author has done is to analyze their teachings, which is certainly an indication of his fairness to them. We all know that the greatest condemnations of the Jews are from their own mouths. And Sullivan brings it down to just one issue, namely, a religious war. The Christian Bible versus The Talmud. The Synagogue of Satan against Christ. Yet some of your "holier than thou" so-called Christian organizations and leaders, like Pilate, self-righteously wash their hands of the whole business and tell us in their next breath that they are going to set up the New Order.

Perhaps some of us who have shed our heart's blood in this cause will have something to say to them about that. If you are a follower of the Christ, you can not be neutral. You are either with Him or against Him, and if you are with Him you will take the proper stand regardless.

This book should appeal especially to Roman Catholics because there is much priceless information pertaining to their Church.

The price of this book is $1.00. It is a MUST book. It is worth its weight in gold to a real Christian.

A NEW EARTH AND A NEW HUMANITY: By Oliver L. Reiser.

The title is very attractive. It was written by a college professor and it will take college people to appreciate it because I don't. It is ACADEMIC in capital letters, certainly not a book for practical every day human beings.

Of course, the book is not without its points, but I simply am giving my impression of it. However, I agree with it in this: "Education is a racket". Amen. I would like the book if the author had used fewer and simpler words. The academic type of mind might enjoy it.

It surely has a wonderful Index of 25 pages. The main part of the book has 209 pages with an Appendix of 12 pages. The volume is cloth bound and sells for $2.50.

THE CONFLICT OF THE AGES OR GOD'S BLUEPRINTS:

By Tacy Weinreber.

This is a book of Israel teachings, but it confines itself to Israel and leaves the word British out, that is to say, it is not all built around Britain as most of these books are. On the contrary the writer said, "America is the appropriate place for Israel" not England.

If you are a Bible student and especially if you are acquainted with the Israel theory, you will learn much. The author is an original thinker, he follows no one. It is too bad that most of our New Dealers can not read it. They might learn something.

The author challenges the idea of the Immaculate Conception as not being listed in God's Blueprint and quotes Scripture to prove his point.

The chapter, "Rome's Part in This Drama of Destiny" is rather interesting. Then the next chapter, "Martin Luther Appears on the Stage" takes up many knotty problems of Scripture that we do not usually find discussed.

In closing, we especially recommend the chapter devoted to Rome.

The book contains 128 pages, is cloth bound and sells for $1.00.

HOW TO LEARN ASTROLOGY: By Marc Edmund Jones.

This is another of the Marc Edmund Jones series written for beginners. It reminds me somewhat of Allen Leo's "Everybody's Astrology", now out of print. Of course, there is much new material here, and I see that there is also much that has been quoted from Allen Leo.

As one would find true in the previous books, so you will find many charts used in this one as illustrations. Some of these are Woodrow Wilson, Queen Victoria, Martin Luther and many others.

This is a very fine book to give to a beginner as a foundation, and also have one for yourself. Even if you are well advanced, you will find some parts very helpful.

The volume is cloth bound, contains 178 pages and sells for $1.50.

LIVES CONTROLLED, OUR GLANDS AND OUR EVOLVEMENT.

By M. W. Kapp, M. D.

Briefly, as the title implies, this book depicts the tremendous effect on our lives by various glands in the body. It is unusual in this respect, that here is a man who gives the spiritual side of man its proper place. In fact, he believes in spiritual evolution. He gives you the history of the study of the types of endocrines and hormones.

In reading this book I was struck with the idea of what a fine substitute this book would make in High Schools and Colleges, whose shelves are loaded down with books that treat man purely as an animal.

Here is a Doctor who considers man as a whole, or rather the ego and the four bodies, the Physical, the Emotional, the Mental and the Spiritual. Of course, it would raise a controversy because he contradicted, and rightly so, the materialistic philosophy, the whole emphasis of which is on the physical body of man, especially sex.

He ends with suggestive items of diet to strengthen weakened glands. It is not a large book. It has fewer than a hundred pages with a few illustrations and charts, but it does contain meat.

It has soft paper cover and sells for $1.00.

THE LUNATION OF JUNE 13, 1942

This is a very interesting lunation, rather outstanding. You recall that in our lunation for November 18th, printed in the December number, on page 19, we said 'Here we find Mars in Aries, its own sign, in the 10th house', warlike activities by the Administration and in Congress. Later on we said 'you may expect unexpected tragedy; the unexpected will happen'. And again, 'You may expect another incident similar to that of the Kearney'. And again: 'Note the presence of Mars, right on the cusp of the house of war, adverse to Sun and Saturn. . . I tremble for the outcome of this configuration. If we keep out of a shooting war throughout the period while Mars is in Aries, I shall call it a modern miracle. The first week of December is extremely critical, for then Mars is exactly adverse to our national Sun, and the latter posted in the 9th house, all the indications of a conflict on foreign soil'. And we had Pearl Harbor.

But now, in this lunation, we have just the reverse; Mars is in Cancer, a sign where it is very weak. We say it is the sign of its fall. On the other hand, we find Venus instead of Mars in the house of war, and Venus is the planet of peace; and Venus is in its own sign, at home in Taurus. It also rules the 12th house of this chart. And, to sum it up, I would say there is a tremendous under-cover sentiment in favor of peace; but the average individual is afraid to express his sentiments. Revelations at Washington have had a very bad effect on the morale of the nation; many are beginning to perceive that the country was engineered into war, and the shocking disclosures of the Administration's plans, and that the winning of the war is of secondary importance to their social program, have come as a shock to the nation. And so the peace indications of this chart will find many who were decidedly warlike three months ago, who now have considerable doubts. However, I do not believe peace will prevail, nor am I personally in favor of it, although you may be shocked at this announcement. For a patched-up or negotiated peace at this time, especially as far as Japan is concerned, will only bring a resumption of this trouble later on. America must be freed of the Japanese menace once and for all, and they must and will be made impotent. The Japanese are below the people of America in evolution, and supremacy of Japan would be a blow to the advancement of civilization.

Regarding the conflict in Europe, I am still of the opinion that

EXTERMINATE Jews First, Let Japs Keep Asia
we have no business over There Anyhow.

Germany and Russia should fight until exhausted; and that would have happened, had we stayed out of the picture. However, I still believe there is a secret agreement between Russia and Germany.

Of course we have Scorpio rising in this chart, pulling against the influence of Venus in the 7th, but Venus is more powerfully placed than Mars. Nevertheless, Mars, the ruler of the ascendant, in the 9th, both water signs, indicates tremendous naval battles adjoining foreign countries and not close to our shores. And we must not lose sight of the fact that Mars and Pluto are in conjunction. And so a very outstanding naval engagement will take place, and both sides will take tremendous odds, and the seemingly impossible will be accomplished. We shall find that Uncle Sam's sailor boys are very superior to the best the enemy can offer. only live ones

It is not merely a material superiority, for we do not have it; there is a spiritual superiority. As we review the chart of the United States, we can not possibly hope for peace of a lasting nature; our national chart indicates conflict for a long time to come, within and without. Every astrological student knows that the passage of Uranus through Gemini means 7 years of conflict. For details, read 'National Destiny', which goes into it in a very exhaustive manner. And so, in spite of all our fine theories of peace, it's not in the cards. Only the purifying fire of war will regenerate this nation. The Synagogue of Satan are in full control here, as abroad; and the sorrow and suffering from war will awaken our people to a spiritual realization. The modern prophets have preached for years on the necessity of housecleaning and regeneration; but it never caused a ripple. If the nation had heeded the voice of the prophets, this war would not have happened.

We refused that appeal, but we can not refuse regeneration through the blood-bath of war. Suppose a negotiated peace were brought about; we would slide back into the old channels of complacency. But God will not permit our returning to the old ways; and so, through earthquakes and tidal waves and pestilence, we would get the same results, regeneration through suffering.

The average man and woman think they can set certain forces in motion, and then tease God into setting aside the law of cause and effect. It is not quite so simple. The Good Book says, Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. Look at the corruption in our Government at Washington today; no semblance of Christian culture remains. But Washington is a symbol of the degeneracy of the nation. However, through suffering, they will send a different type of people to represent them. There is no remission of sins without the shedding of blood, whether you believe it or not.

Another reason why I believe peace impossible: Take the souls who came into incarnation during the last war, at which time we had some very vicious planetary configurations, mostly from the fixed signs of Leo and Aquarius. I had an astrological study class in 1912; and I remarked to my class, 'The souls who come into incarnation in the next ten years will be fighters; warriors; which indicates to me that when they grow up there will be a big world conflict—that is, 20 to 25 years later'. And so I was not surprised to see that war, I knew it would come; and I believe it beyond the power of man to stop it, unless it were possible to break down the corruption that exists throughout the world over night. I am convinced that only suffering will do that, and so I do not look for permanent peace; and I have given my reasons for so stating.

There is still an other indication that we can not expect peace, in spite of the fact that the bulk of humanity, the world over, does not want war. Only those in control want war, but those in control are being used by Divinity to force humanity to liquidate their debts to spiritual law.

But to come back to the chart; we have Uranus also in the 7th but fairly close to the cusp of the 8th, and it is in good aspect to Mars and Pluto, and indicates that even the dictators would like to have peace. But they are powerless to stop the machine they have set in motion.

It also indicates some startling new methods on the part of our enemies, Uranian methods, the product of science and invention, and with unusual air activity. And with Uranus now in Gemini, more and more of the conflict will be in the air. And we may expect to see the use of poison gas, an indication that the war is in the third and last stage of its activities. The war will be more savage, more brutal and more devastating as poison gas will snuff out the lives of tens of thousands, yes, millions, over night. And it will be directed, to a large extent, at the civil population of the large centers. Cities and countries ruled by Gemini will bear the brunt of this. We haven't very much reliable information on American cities, although today most astrologers think San Francisco is ruled by Gemini. We do know that London, England, is ruled by Gemini; and it will be one of the major focusing centers of gas attack, and very few will survive.

We have a grouping of planets in the 8th house in this lunation, and Saturn and Uranus near the cusp. Sun, Moon, Mercury and Jupiter are also there, the latter four are all adverse to Neptune; and so we may expect an epidemic of sickness and death. That Saturn-Uranus position indicates a very heavy mortality. Neptune in the 11th, and with 4 planets adverse to it, indicates that Congress is beginning to realize the enormity of some of their past acts; they are beginning to see the fruits of some of the vicious laws they passed, the billions of dollars they voted without due thought and consideration. They are beginning to review the vicious Wagner Act because the actions of labor in conjunction with the Administration will show them that it can have only one end, namely, bankruptcy for the middle class—the employer, the manufacturer, the backbone of the nation. But the Wagner Act does not stand alone; they will begin to perceive that the 'must' legislation of the President, with the capstone of the lend-lease bill, means the end of the American way of life. The people already perceive it; and Sun, Moon and Mercury adverse to Neptune indicates that the people are conveying that information to their representatives in Congress. Congress is panicky, and you may expect to see sudden deaths of members of that body; and though it may never be announced as such, there will be suicides of Congressmen. The news will be camouflaged, and announced to the public as sudden heart attack.

The little puppets in Washington will begin to perceive not only the voice of the people, but the hand of God. And like King Belshazzar, they will see the handwriting on the wall. Many who come up for re-election will decide they don't want to go back.

This lunation will have a marked effect in the nation as it pertains to the coming election; the Primaries will already be settled by the time you receive this, and the powers that be will be scheming for the way out to prevent the election. Rest assured, as I stated in the January number, the New Deal can not afford to have an election this year; and the voters will need to be on guard.

We have repeatedly told the indications of sickness, in the past few months. I want you to realize that the planets do not make you sick; they only indicate harvest time. If you are sick, one of two things, possibly both, have happened. First, you are suffering from toxemia, a poisoned bloodstream due to a diet that is clogging; white bread, white sugar, white of eggs, meat, and excess proteins, clog the system and you have congestion and sickness. Then again,

6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

90 per cent of the nation is under-nourished. Oh, yes, they have three square meals a day—of devitalized foods. Their blood is deficient in the natural salts of the body. There are two ways to replace the deficiency of salts and vitamins. Cell salts will do wonders; herbs and vegetables will replace the vitamins, besides casting out the refuse of the toxins in the system. You will find the Kamba herb very efficient in cleaning up the intestinal tract, which is the first place to start. Eliminate bread from your diet entirely if you are an adult—although children would be better off without it. White bread, white sugar, polished rice and starches are the devitalized foods that cause the accumulation of pus and bring about inflamed tonsils, adenoids and the catarrhal, congested condition. Fruits, vegetables and herbs are life-giving, and are the natural food of man. Eliminate alcohol and tobacco, and nature will do the rest. Those who observe these rules will not suffer when the epidemics of sickness sweep the land. These epidemics will strike only those with fertile soil in their bloodstreams; so eliminate the poisons, and supply the deficiencies, and cultivate a profound faith in God, and you will have no health problem.

One more thing; don't try to work the clock around. That has been my undoing for many years. But the very nature of my work makes it impossible for me to carry out my own prescription; you wouldn't have a Beacon Light if I did. I am doing better than I used to since we have eliminated all personal readings; but there is still more work than two people should be doing, and we still find it necessary to work 7 days a week, although it is contrary to spiritual law.

YOU AND YOUR ASPECTS FOR JUNE, 1942

Inasmuch as most of the planets are in common signs, the natives of the 4 common signs will begin to feel the pressure very heavily this month; that is, the Pisceans; Geminis, Virgos and Sagittarians. You see we have no less than 7 planets in common signs, and 3 of them powerful malefics. Those born in the first 5 days of common signs will feel the effect of the Saturn-Uranus combination, and those born the last 5 degrees will feel the effect of the square, conjunction or opposition of Neptune. Any beginners' book on astrology will give you the dates; we have given it repeatedly in the past. Get yourself a copy of Practical Astrology for Everybody ($1.05, see our book lists) and you will find the dates when the Sun enters the 4 common signs, which is usually about the 20th to 21st of the months of February, May, August and November; the days vary a little. The Sun enters Pisces on February 19th, into Virgo around the 22nd or 23rd of August.

Now those born the last few days of the common signs are going to feel the effect of that Sun, Moon and Mercury adverse to Neptune; that is, those born around March 18, June 19, September 20 and December 20. If any of these dates is your birthday, you need to see that the colon is thoroughly cleansed, either through herb treatments or colonic irrigation; for this is judgment day, and if your colon is full of putrefaction Mother Nature will let you know, in no uncertain terms. And if you are lacking in the natural salts and vitamins you will have an unnatural craving for stimulants of some kind; tea, coffee, chocolate, coca-cola, beer, liquor and cigarettes.

Now in spite of what you may think to the contrary, none of these are foods; and they are mighty poisonous substitutes for the natural salts and vitamins which you lack. Watch your acquaintances who are born around these dates, and you will see the truth of my statements. This Neptune ray turns the searchlight upon them; as a result, they go for stimulants instead of supplying the required needs of the body in salts and vitamins.

The man or woman who says 'I can't do without my tea, or coffee', is no better off than the man who can't do without his liquor or beer or tobacco; for they all have the same effect on the vital organs, especially the liver, kidney and stomach, and so eventually affect the heart. The very fact that coffee drinkers have a headache when they don't get their coffee gives the game away; they have a toxic headache.

Now we are at war, let's make it thorough; let's declare active warfare on the sale of anything that tears down and produces sickness in the body; let's close these fancy bejeweled saloons, politely called cocktail bars. We can soon cut off their wind by denying tires for their trucks; why not? The milkman can get no tires.

Astrology indicates that booze is going to go as soon as Neptune enters Libra; and it will go to stay this time. And so let's declare war on all alcoholic drinks and tobacco; look at the damnable effect it has on school girls and boys. Women have less restraint than men in smoking. Soft drinks as we have them today must go; they are almost as disastrous in their effect on the stomach, liver and kidneys as whiskey. The same is true of tea, coffee and cocoa; the latter is a very bilious concoction.

Now I know we all like to pick on the other fellow's sins; the Prohibitionist is usually very fond of his coffee or tea; but this time we must make a clean sweep, and get back to healthful living. All that is not in harmony with the laws of God or nature must go, and those who refuse will walk the plank, as individuals or nations. There can be no use for these things in the kingdom of God that is going to prevail here on earth. Read 'Thy Kingdom Come' for details.

And so, while we are tearing down the old, let's take in the department of diet, and clean house there.

And in the realm of economics, let's overhaul our financial structure; we will have to anyway, the old system is crumbling. And so again I say, these adverse aspects of Saturn and Neptune are merely nature's efforts toward spring cleaning, through sickness; they represent judgment day and are really beneficial in nature because through sickness they throw off the poisons that are killing you. Nevertheless, much dead wood will be eliminated this month; already the world is much cleaner and lighter than it was a year ago. Any sensitive can tell you that; I am fully conscious of it. Many karmic debts have been paid during the last six months especially.

This Neptunian vibration will strike hard around the 19th of the month when the Sun squares that point; it will make itself felt for a week before and after, however. Fortunately it is offset considerably by Mars favorable to Uranus on the 17th and to Saturn on the 23rd, and further the Sun conjoined to Jupiter on the 25th; otherwise it would be considerably worse.

As the month closes, Mercury and Venus parallel to Mars and conjoined to Uranus will bring sensational news; note the 21st and 30th of the month, for on the 21st we have Mars conjoined with Pluto and parallel to Uranus. There will undoubtedly be a tremendous naval engagement on that date. And the Moon will be coming up to a conjunction of Neptune and adverse to the Sun; not a very auspicious day. And on the 30th Mercury and Venus are parallel and conjunction to Mars and Uranus. In addition, we have the Moon in opposition to Mars. And so history will be made on these two dates. The 21st date will have a marked effect on Congress; watch your papers. And the 30th date the Moon is in the 3rd house, sensational news.

Altogether, the month is going to be quite sensational, in spots, and very depressing in others. But you don't have to go up and down with the scale; the man or woman who is spiritually awakened rides on top of the waves at all times, and is calm, poised and serene. Don't run around crying on someone else's shoulder; the source of all knowledge is within you. Follow your own inner guidance; it is the most reliable guide in the world. It will tell you where to go and what to do and when, if you will listen. It is the only unfallible guide in the world, because it comes from the God within.

Saturn-Uranus in the Heavens: The conjunction of Saturn and Uranus in the heavens, on the cusp of Gemini, will affect every human being on earth. I will attempt to apply it to a few charts within the limits of our space.

Let us apply it to the chart of Japan. It falls right over Neptune, posted in their first house, and is square to Mercury and coming up to a conjunction of Pluto. However, I think their goose will be cooked before Pluto gets into action, the latter being 3 degrees, 55 minutes in Gemini. Even at that, Saturn will be sitting right over their Pluto during the first half of June. In my opinion this conjunction will produce chaos in Japan; and that chaos will come largely through American bombers in the air. And by the way, it is the airplane that will win this war, now that Uranus is in Gemini. The Uranian airships will carry Saturnian death. Wishful Braggings

By a strange coincidence, the chart of Henry Wallace and the chart of Japan are very similar; the Japanese chart is 18 degrees of Taurus on the ascendant, and Wallace's has 14 degrees. Wallace was born October 7, 1888, and the Japanese national chart is on February 11, 1889; and so you see there is only a difference of 4 months between these charts. And as Japan is being licked, so you will find the prestige of Henry Wallace go down. Both have Saturn in Leo and in the 4th house, not a very good omen.

But I had better stick to Japan, except to say that as far as Wallace is concerned, his future, as the Irishman expressed it, is all behind him. The date given above for the chart of Japan is the date on which she adopted her present form of government.

In our lunation of June 13 we find Jupiter on the cusp of Japan's 3rd house, adverse to Venus and Uranus, and Mars, the war lord, on the cusp of the 4th, coming up to a conjunction of Saturn. It indicates that Japan's lines of communication will be cut. The people of Japan will receive much adverse news; and the passage of Mar through their 4th house, especially when it conjoins their Saturn around July 10th, and later opposes their Sun around July 20th, will have a very bad effect on the morale of the Japanese people. Japan can not possibly win. She had a powerful machine to start with, air and naval supremacy, and a perfect plan; their naval strength outnumbers ours in the Pacific, by 3 or 4 to one; her navy almost equals our total navy. But our one-ocean navy is scattered over 7 oceans and hers is all in the Pacific. But the American bomber is going to make up the deficiency. The Japanese, like the Germans, are methodical, and trained to follow a plan; the moment that plan is disrupted, they are chaotic. Americans have initiative, and are able to formulate their own plans in an emergency. We call it by other names, but this is spiritual insight, inspiration. And so we shall lick Japan by our spiritual superiority, in spite of our many shortcomings. So I say this Saturn-Uranus conjunction is the death-knell of Japan. And from an astrological point of view, we should concentrate on the Pacific first; and then when Japan is out of the way we can turn our attention to the Atlantic where we can repeat the formula. At present we are too scattered.

Now in our national chart, that Saturn-Uranus combination is in good aspect to Pluto. Jupiter is powerfully placed, right over Venus, and coming up to a conjunction of Jupiter, a wonderful indication of victory. And Mars, the war lord, right over our midheaven. And so I expect a very decisive battle in the Pacific, for it is too early for such a thing to happen on the Atlantic battlefield.

And that Jupiter crossing our Venus is another indication of a tremendous peace effort during the month of June. It is not in the cards for Japan to win; the comparison of the charts shows that quite clearly. Let us look at the chart of the Emperor of Japan; we find this Saturn-Uranus combination on the cusp of the 6th house. This rules the armed forces of that nation, and it is certainly not an indication of success for their efforts. Saturn in one's 6th house makes one indisposed, sluggish and demoralized; that will be the condition of the armed forces of Japan. And Mars going through the Emperor's 8th house, afflicting Venus and the Sun, indicates a tremendous casualty list.

This Saturn combination has a devastating effect in the chart of Mussolini, with no possible chance of going anywhere except to the garbage dump. Mussolini would like peace, and how! But alas for him, I see no prospect of peace; only pieces. wires crossed

As we take a look at Hitler's chart, we find very similar testimonies, Hitler being born in 1889, the same year that Japan adopted her new form of government; and there are only a few months between the two birth dates or charts. The houses are different, however; this Saturn-Uranus combination falls in the house of death, and of the ruler of Germany, and this is likely to come through assassination rather than on the battlefield. Hitler, like Mussolini, is practically finished; even the benefic Jupiter, at the time of the New Moon, is in opposition to his Moon and Jupiter at birth, and Mars, the war lord, afflicts his Sun at birth, and toward the end of June afflicts his Saturn Venus and Mars in the 10th. And so I am convinced that this summer, June or July, will see the end of Hitler.

Let's take a glance at the chart of the Third Reich, which came into being on January 30th, 1933. This is a rather powerful chart, more so than the others we have considered, and is second only to the chart of the U. S. The Germans themselves will dispose of Hitler, but there will be a battle-royal when we really tangle with Germany. The Germans will fight stubbornly, because they remember the Treaty of Versailles. This treaty brought about the present war; of that there is no question, all statesmen agree on that point. And so the Germans will fight stubbornly because they will expect another Treaty of Versailles if defeated. However, I may say they will be defeated; but there will be no Treaty of Versailles this time; public opinion will forbid it, even in the U. S. A.

This Saturn-Uranus condition is not so disastrous in the German chart as in the Japanese or Italian. And so you see that Hitler and Germany have come to the parting of the ways; their national chart continues to show strength, and Hitler's, death and destruction. However, there will be terrific losses in Germany; at this time Jupiter afflicts the Moon, and the Moon represents the masses of the people. And here again as in the case of Japan, we find Mars going through the 4th and afflicting Mercury, Saturn and the Sun; again we find indications of body blows as the month of June closes and July opens up.

The German people would like peace, especially after they have disposed of Hitler; and only the shadow of the Treaty of Versailles will hold them back from saying so.

The progressed Moon in the chart of the Third Reich will form some very heavy afflictions throughout 1942, especially the latter half of the year and the first few months of '43, indicating a series of disasters, for it afflicts Mercury, Saturn and the Sun. Note the similarity of aspects to those in the chart of Japan.

And here is a remarkable coincidence; both the Japanese chart and the German chart have 18 degrees of Taurus on the ascendant. And so you can see why the tie-up. This is something more than a coincidence.

Now, what does it do for Stalin? The lunation of June 13 is right in Stalin's house of death, afflicting Mercury, Uranus and Jupiter. The shadow of death is in the background. Jupiter in the 8th is usually benefic, but it is coming up to an opposition to the Sun and an adverse to Saturn. Here again, this influence comes into full force in July, as indicated in the other charts. Watch your papers throughout the month of July, when Jupiter touches off this point, which it does around the 20th. Mars falls in the 9th house, and comes up to an adverse of Neptune and Mars, which is complete in the first week of July; and so the first half of July will be very critical for Stalin personally.

Now the new Russian set-up came into being on November 9, 1917. Here again, as in Germany, we find that the nation and the ruler are divided, for this lunation somewhat favors Russia, falling on the cusp of her 9th house in good aspect to her Uranus; tremendous help from a foreign nation. And that nation will be the U. S. A., for our Sun is in her 9th house. However, I see serious trouble for Russia, culminating in August. But the presence of Mars in Leo, which enters with the New Moon, soon comes to a conjunction of Neptune around the 20th, and for the time being will have a rather disastrous effect, and will bring serious dissention among the leaders of the nation; which will be patched up, but will break out afresh toward the close of the month. And the first 10 days of July, as Mars conjoins Saturn and afflicts Sun, Uranus and Mercury, will bring serious consequences. And the opposition to Uranus especially means internal dissention, for Uranus is posted in the 4th house, ruling domestic affairs of the nation.

In conclusion, as we glance at the various charts, we see no unity within the nations; on the contrary we have a serious division; and internal dissention among these nations will be a great help to the U. S. in this tremendous world conflagration known as World War No. 2. In July and August we shall have even more startling information, for we see world affairs heading up to a serious crisis; and that crisis will sweep away the present day leaders in all the nations and a new set of leaders will go to the top.

Churchill: Just a glance at Churchill's chart, who was born November 30, 1874. The indications for him are very serious, just as much so as they are for Mussolini and Hitler; for this conjunction of Saturn and Uranus will remove him from power, as it afflicts not only his Moon, his personality, but opposes his Sun; and the lunation of June 13 opposes his Venus. I do not think Churchill will remain in the saddle throughout the summer. Here again, July and August see serious indications, especially the latter month.

In the chart of Great Britain this Saturn-Uranus produces very benefic results, as it is in good aspect to Uranus and Jupiter; and so again you see the indications for the leader of the nation different from those in the national chart. And this falls on the cusp of the 9th house; tremendous aid from across the seas. Again the U. S. is indicated.

The horoscope for London, however, has some rather serious indications, as has also the chart of King George; and the King is in great personal danger, with Saturn and Uranus right in opposition to his Moon and in the house of death. There will be public mourning in Great Britain. You may expect to hear of the death of Queen Mary.

There will also be heavy losses to the Empire in manpower. With a change of leadership will come better conditions for Britain, although I don't expect it this month, for our lunation of June 13th shows heavy afflictions in King George's chart, falling right in opposition to his Mercury and Sun, and Venus conjoined to Neptune and opposing Mercury, although favorable to Jupiter. Mars in the 9th, favorable to Venus, again indicates tremendous peace efforts from a foreign nation; but Mars right over the King's midheaven, favorable to Mars at birth, does not incline that way. Nevertheless, there is a strong peace sentiment in Britain.

Now there has been considerable broadcasting throughout the nation that I am a defeatist. I would ask that our readers give this summary as wide a circulation as possible; not for my sake, nor for the sake of The Beacon Light, but for the sake of the Cause we represent.

I AM From Missouri.

The Red Menace in Our Government

Part II

Washington, or rather the Administration, has a huge propaganda bureau at work to act as a smoke screen, lest the people know what they are doing. I could fill a book as large as a Webster's Dictionary with the record of the unlawful actions of our so-called law-enforcement agencies. They make no pretense at being law abiding. They have the press at their control, snoopers by the thousands, also a powerful alliance with labor and other groups too numerous to mention.

But why all the beating of the tom-toms by the Administration? It is because they do not want the common people to know what they are doing. During the past year we have shown you quite clearly that everything the Roosevelt Administration has done, has had just one object and that is to convert our Republic into a second Soviet Russia. The social plan comes first on the list and that fact has become obvious even to the man in the street as he sees from the actions of the Administration that "winning the war" is secondary.

They have planted key men in practically every organization, ready for the take-over. Look at the records of men like Henderson, Ickes, Hopkins, Hillman, Madame Perkins and several thousand others in key positions in the Administration.

A man is known by the company he keeps. If a critic of the Administration attend a meeting of the Bund, even as a Reporter, he is immediately smeared as a Nazi. But he can go to as many Communist meetings as he cares to and have a paid-up subscription to "The Daily Worker" and have copies of all the subversive literature, yea, he can even belong to the Communist Party and live in a Red district and he is all right. He might even get an invitation from the first lady, Mrs. Roosevelt to take tea with her as did a group of common prostitutes from an institution. I have more respect for the physical prostitute from the Red Light district than the politicians in our Government because their crime is insignificant in comparison.

Now there are facts and figures on record that should stir you into action. They show that the Reds are in control of the Government and our nation. I have been urged to "pipe down" and "soft pedal" but I'll be damned if I do. As a citizen of this Republic it is my duty to expose the enemies of our beloved country. It may be that I shall be smeared more, but I am getting used to it. I have been smeared from coast to coast by Red journals such as Friday Magazine, by Walter Winchell, J. B. Hughes and a few other such smelly skunks. I shall fulfill my duty as a citizen as long as I am at liberty. I may be railroaded to jail on some pretext or other. So be it. My Leader was crucified a little more than nineteen hundred years ago. Why shouldn't I be? My one mission in life is to tell the truth regarding the powers of darkness in all their ramifications. I often think my work is practically done as far as this phase is concerned because W. R. Hearst in his column is talking as strongly and plainly as I could do, and his daily column is well worth reading; also those columns of Rothwell Brown and Paul Mallon, and sometimes Boake Carter has something on the ball. Do not overlook Hugh Johnson. He is certainly talking turkey. HE WAS.

I am now going to quote an editorial from a Hearst paper of November 28, 1941. You will see that this editorial vindicates me when I make the statement that the Reds are in charge of our nation. How can we win the war with a situation like this?

PRINT THE NAMES

Turn the Spotlight on the Reds in U. S. Posts

"A large and influential sector of official Washington is utilizing the present national emergency as a means of undermining the American system of democratic government", says Chairman Martin Dies, of the committee investigating un-American activities, in his sensational and revealing letter to Attorney General Biddle one month ago. In this letter Representative Dies said that 1124 officials and employees—nine of whom are in the executive office of the President and all of whom are Communists or fellow-travelers of various shades of red and pink—are intrenched in thirty-seven departments and agencies of the Government.

The public has a right to demand in the interests of national safety that the names of these persons with their respective positions and the salaries the American taxpayers are paying them be immediately made public. Not to do so would mean that this Administration by its silence is doing precisely what Chairman Dies charges—to wit, using the "emergency" to undermine the American system of democratic government.

It was Attorney General Biddle himself who, on October 7, asked Mr. Dies to give him information as to "membership of any employee of the Federal Government in subversive organizations". In reply, Representative Dies has named well over a thousand such persons. The people of America must insist upon knowing who these Communists and fellow-travelers are.

That publicity in this matter is of the most urgent importance is evidenced by the fact that, with thirty-seven Federal agencies harboring these foes of our system of government and our way of life, forty-five are employed in the War Department, forty in the Navy Department, twelve in the State Department and nine in the office of the President. These enemies of our country hidden in these vital places have at their finger-ends all the secrets that should be entrusted only to one hundred per cent bona-fide Americans who have been checked and double-checked on their antecedents and their affiliations with organizations of any kind.

In France, under the regime of Leon Blum, the latter's air minister, Mons. Cot, openly boasted that all the facts about airplanes and airplane production were going to France's ally, Red Russia. This alliance with Russia and the notorious Communist entrenchment in the Blum government were the prime factors that destroyed France when the hour of danger sounded. She was eaten up from within by Red termites.

Now, according to the solid facts which Chairman Dies has laid before the Attorney General at the latter's own request, our Government is swarming with the same type of boring insects that made of France a hollow house. Many of these 1124 members of subversive organizations are in "key positions", according to Chairman Dies. Just how important some of these persons are is revealed by the fact that in some instances their salaries are more than $10,000 a year!

Chairman Dies, in asking the Attorney General to make a prompt and thorough investigation—followed by "Appropriate Action",—repeats in substance, to Mr. Biddle what the Hearst papers have been saying ever since the Administration's alliance with our twenty-four-year-old enemy, Communist Russia—that is:

"It must, of course, be apparent to all that our present foreign policy of all-out aid to Russia is one that makes it very easy for Communists and their sympathizers to pose as the most ardent patriots. The very grave danger exists that our Government, by its aid to Russia, on the eastern front, has opened up for Stalin a new western front right here in the capital of America.

Chairman Dies shows just how remiss this Administration has been in the pursuit of revolutionary Reds in the Government service in this paragraph in his letter:

"Without exception, the evidence upon which this list has been compiled is taken from original documents. These documents are available for the inspection and study of your agents, just as they have been available to all agents of the Federal Government for the past three years". Three years of boring into our very vitals and nothing has been done! We are being submarined at home.

Our War and Navy Departments are reeking with fifth columnists. And nothing is being done about it!

In the appropriation bill passed last June $100,000 was voted for the exclusive use of the FBI to investigate "employees of every department, agency and independent establishment of the Federal Government who are members of subversive organizations or advocate the overthrow of the Federal Government and report its findings to Congress.

That was six months ago. What has become of the money?

Where are the results? Where is the report to Congress?

Pigeon-holed—Submarined.

Chairman Dies has laid names before the prosecuting officer of the Government.

The public has a right to demand again that Attorney General Biddle print all the names, with their positions and salaries, of the men and women in the Government service who, as Chairman Dies says, are working for the overthrow of the United States Government and seek to substitute for it the brutal dictatorship of Communism.

Turn the light of publicity into the rat-holes of Washington!

THEIR NAMES!"

After having read the above, what are you going to do about it? You can do a great deal about it. The Administration has done everything in their power to discredit Dies and his committee. Nothing but public opinion is going to force the Administration to act, or rather I should say Congress, because the Administration is not going to throw itself out of office. Today Congress is carrying water on both shoulders. This is an election year, you know. They want the blessing of the Administration and they want the votes of their people.

There is where you come in. You must let them know in no uncertain terms, that you do the voting and not the Administration.

Why should Congress fear the Administration? In the first place they are small potatoes in most cases, politicians of the lowest type.

Never in the history of our country was the calibre of Congress as low as it is at present. Let me quote an editorial that I picked up recently that tells the story of the whip the Administration is using. All the Administration has to do is to accuse them of being pro-Nazi and they shrivel up like a feather in a fire.

"The technique for holding skittish Democrats in line behind the New Deal appears to have been worked out. It is to accuse every critic of the Administration of being a Nazi agent!

The thing is so childish as to be almost unbelievable, but the pattern is clearly discernible and runs like a thread through the canned speeches and statements penned by the New Deal press agencies and spouted by such stooges as can be induced to put the idea across.

If the President carries out his implied intention of supporting for re-election to Congress in November only those who supported his prewar measures, he will most certainly run into another complication".

Now that we are at war, the Reds are jumping into every nook and cranny of National Defense, especially the ICD. At this point go back and re-read "Washington's Vision in Action" (Beacon Light, Feb. 1942) because I want you to hold that picture in mind, for that is a blueprint of the Reds within our borders.

I am now going to quote an editorial from the Los Angeles Examiner of March 9th, confirming the statement that I have made many times, namely that for one Nazi there are 100 Reds, but the Nazis get a thousand times more attention. How does this come?

CLEAN HOUSE!

Get the Reds and Pinks Out of Federal Posts!

Chairman Dies of the committee investigating un-American activities registers another triumph in a long series of triumphs in the order of Secretary of the Navy Knox barring George Deatherage from working as an engineer for contractors at the naval operating base at Norfolk, Virginia.

It was the Dies Committee—which has never received the support of this Administration—which drew from Deatherage that he was Commander of the Knights of the White Camellias, a Fascist organization. It was the Dies Committee that further drew from Deatherage the admission that he had contacts with the German Embassy, that the Knights of the White Camellias was anti-Semitic and that his organization collaborated with a propaganda organization in Germany.

When it became known that this man was working on vital naval plans, the Administration took quick action to see that he was "fired" as an "undesirable", a right properly reserved to the Government in all contracts awarded to private firms engaged in war activities. The Administration is to be commended for its prompt and unqualified act of getting rid of Deatherage.

But it will also be asked by millions of thoughtful Americans with ordinary memories why this same zeal and promptitude for our national welfare are not evidenced in regard to more than three thousand persons employed in the Government service—some in key positions—who, like Deatherage, have been associated with organizations as completely anti-American in principle as the Knights of the White Camellias.

Chairman Dies laid the names of Pinks and Reds and the Communistic "front" organizations with which they have been or are still affiliated before the President and Attorney General Biddle more than five months ago. Some of these Marxians of various breeds were, as Chairman Dies pointed out, in the executive offices of the White House, others in the Army and still others occupying high positions in an Administrative capacity in cabinet departments.

Nothing has been done about these Knights of the Red Camillias. These persons have plotted here on our soil for some years and far more effectively than the Nazis or their American confederates of the Deatherage order. Indeed, the leader of these men and women, who swarm like red ants in Washington, is in jail for falsifying a passport—Earl Browder.

The Dies Committee in its great patriotic work has been absolutely single-minded in uncovering the enemies of our Constitution and our way of life. It has pursued and exposed Nazis and Reds without fear or favor. Why, then, should not the Administration be as fearlessly impartial as the Dies Congressional Committee? Why does it not rout out of all Navy, Army and civilian posts the Communists and Communist fellow-travelers working therein with the same alacrity as it used to oust Deatherage?

There is no question here of our necessary alliance with Russia to defeat the common enemy. It is a question of getting rid impartially of all those who do not accept the fundamental principles of this government, for which our men are dying in the air, at sea, and on land—who seek, by devious subterfuge, to "make America over". For one Deatherage working on Navy and Army contracts there are a hundred Reds and near Reds. It is high time the Administration stopped making fish of one kind of subverter and fowl of another.

Open up the Dies dossier to the President and the Attorney General—NOW. Make it public and get rid of every man and woman in the service—civilian, Army or Navy—whose record has not been one hundred per cent United States American. The Administration owes this to our fighters. It owes it to all real Americans.

Get the RED as well as the WHITE Camellians out of their nests in the civil and war services of the U. S. A."

Just now the Department of Justice with Attorney General Biddle is very much in the lime light. That gentleman has a lot of dirty work to do to clean up his own dirty kitchen. Here is an editorial from a paper dated February 27th which is talking right up our alley. The fact that the Administration and the Communists in the Government have tried to assassinate and sabotage the Dies Committee looks very suspicious.

DANGER. WITHIN

Red Infiltration Parallels Jap Plot

"There is a highly significant statement in the Washington dispatch to the New York Times which tells of the amazing revelations by Chairman Martin Dies of the committee on un-American activities, of Japanese fifth column activities in this country. It is this: 'It was the story which the (Dies) committee sought to unfold at public hearings last August . . . But it was deferred when highest Government officials regarded such action as inadvisable at that time'. The result of this combined carelessness, optimism and dilly-dallying concerning a great menace was Pearl Harbor.

No time is "inadvisable" to reveal to the public just exactly what is going on. The parallel applicability of this official shushing of the Dies report on Japanese spies of last August to underground Communist activities in the United States today is clearly evident. The publication of Red Activities, too, is being shushed by official Washington as being "inadvisable" at this time in precisely the same way that Japanese boring, sapping and mining was shoved in the pigeonhole last August.

One of the recommendations of Chairman Dies in his 285 page report on Japanese spying here before Pearl Harbor is the following:

"Remove all present and former members of or sympathizers with 'any subversive organizations' from jobs in the Government or war industries. There have been over a score of such subversive organizations listed over and over by the Dies Committee in its exposures of Communist-Comintern activities on our soil. These activities now as well as for the last twenty years aim at the conquest of America from within by sapping and mining.

Just precisely as the Government thought it "inadvisable" six months ago to publish the Japanese report of the Dies Committee, it is now thought "inadvisable" to publish the names of the 1124 (and more) Reds and Pinks which Chairman Dies sent to the President and the Attorney General nearly a year ago. These Reds and Pinks and other varieties of the Marxian revolutionists and subverters are employed in every department of our Government, even in the Executive offices of the White House.

Our ally, Russia, does not permit the employment of a single person in her government, her war industries, or anywhere else in all the Russias, who believes in Jeffersonian democracy or in our American free enterprise system. The Administration is just as flabby today in its coddling of Communist plotters as it was in regard to Japanese plotters.

On the vital subject of Red infiltrations, Homer L. Chaillaux, the American Legion's national Americanism director, in a statement issued to the Associated Press on February 26 said:

"If we do not resist their encroachments now we will wake up some day, after we have exhausted ourselves in beating the Axis powers. We will find a strong and virulent Communist organization within our midst all ready to overthrow our Government by force or violence. We do not want spies and saboteurs in our civilian defense organizations any more than we want men and women who owe their first allegiance to an alien philosophy or who follow the dictates of an alien dictator".

Will Washington wake up to this growing menace of a Government socketed Communist organization also when it is too late? Every Communist newspaper and magazine in the United States is today bitterly opposed to the activities of the Dies Committee. That ought to reveal to the thickest official blockhead in Washington what's going on under our very noses.

We have repeatedly warned you people that Communists have just one idea in mind, that is to take over our country. The sign for this will be when Russia strikes back at us, which she will, when the time is right. Watch our Astrological forecast for the time element. The following editorial shows how they are getting ready.

RED INTRIGUE

New 'Party Line' Aims Exposed

The national committee of the Communist Party in the United States has promulgated a new "party line" for the guidance of its members in the war emergency. It has three main points, only one having even a remote bearing on the conduct of the war.

The first of the three points, urging all members of the Communist Party and the Young Communists' League to join the American armed forces, has the outward appearance of innocence, but if the fundamental and long range purposes of Communism—aiming at the destruction of democracy in the United States—are ever accomplished, undermining of the armed forces would be a contributing and probably a decisive first step.

However, the second and third points in the new Communist "party line" do not so much as pretend innocent or American purpose. One proposes the concentration of all Communist influence and action upon President Roosevelt for the release of Earl Browder, former secretary of the Communist Party in the United States, from Federal prison where he is serving a sentence for conviction on charges of criminal falsification of passports. The other proposes the removal of all "anti-Communist" officials from the American Government, with the name of J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, heading the list.

The second "point" confirms a disclosure made by Homer L. Chaillaux, Director of the National Americanism Commission of the American Legion. Writing in the National Legionnaire, he said:

"A nationwide drive is on to free Browder from the Atlanta Federal prison. The Communist Party claims that Browder is this country's leading anti-Fascist and that he could do much to defend America in this emergency if he were free. History shows us that he went to prison during the last world war rather than help defend this country. History has already repeated itself. Browder is where he belongs—in Federal prison".

What a travesty it would be upon our present and magnificent effort to preserve a free, democratic America against powerful enemies beyond our borders, to begin by granting amnesty to our known enemies within our borders.

What a further travesty it would be upon our war effort, to remove from responsible positions in Government those officials most conspicuous for past opposition to Communistic and subversive elements and for past and unquestioned loyalty to democratic America! Of course, Communists in the United States are taking every possible advantage of the war emergency to further their program. But they are not interested in winning the war for America. Where their real interest lies is revealed by this further disclosure by Mr. Chailaux:

"The membership of the Communist Party is increasing during the present drives, which are held under the pretext of aid to Russia: Every slogan of the Communist Party and its press is a demand for aid to the Soviet Union. Nowhere do you find a line or a paragraph pointing to an interest in the defense of the United States".

The American people have many vital tasks to perform in the winning of the present war, and not the least of these tasks is to identify and defeat the enemies in their midst.

* * *

There have been investigations without number recently. Take the case of Harry Bridges. The investigation of Dean Landis was a farce, but the eleven weeks trial before Judge Sears was different. And here we find Harry Bridges, in spite of his conviction, wanting to set up his own defense organization. How do you like the following?

AUDACIOUS SCHEME

Ascribed to Harry Bridges

The alien labor leader, Harry Bridges, over whom a judicial recommendation for deportation as an undesirable alien still hangs, has surpassed his own past record for sheer audacity. It is reported that the West Coast division of the Congress of Industrial Organizations has set up an "independent" defense organization for the following amazing purposes:

To make reports on sabotage, fires and air raids directly to Bridges, and to carry out specific instructions not to make such reports to civil authorities and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The effect of this audacious enterprise is to establish a purely private and wholly unauthorized defense organization, at the very least in duplication of legal and recognized defense establishments and almost certainly in conflict with authoritative agencies. It is contemptuous and defiant of actual Government agencies, both Federal and local. It amounts to the setting up of government within government.

It implies not simply the unauthorized collection of information but the unauthorized use of it, which would be an invasion of the legally constituted fields of authority and a usurpation of powers for which there is no shadow of legality. This would be an excessively dangerous enterprise, if undertaken with unassailable motives by individuals and groups with unquestioned loyalties to the United States.

About the most disastrous thing that could happen to our national defense effort now would be to have bands of irresponsible zealots ranging about the country in a spirit of vigilantism.

But it is particularly in order to analyze the background of Harry Bridges in this connection. He is a man branded in June, 1940, by a 330 to 42 vote in the United States House of Representatives as an alien "whose presence in this country Congress deems hurtful". He is a man regarding whom Representative Starnes of Alabama said on the floor of the House:

"Bridges has done more to destroy the peace and security in certain sections than any other individual, and more to destroy the merchant marine than the entire Confederacy did in the Civil War".

He is a man regarding whom Judge Charles B. Sears, after a hearing in San Francisco lasting eleven weeks, made this recommendation to the Attorney General of the United States:

"That the alien, Harry Renton Bridges, be deported to Australia at the expense of the Government on charges that after entering the United States he has been a member of and affiliated with an organization, association, society or group that believes in, advises, advocates and teaches the overthrow by force and violence of the Government of the United States".

The prevention and punishment of sabotage and the timely detection of air raids are the SOLE responsibility of Government or military, civilian or other agencies specifically and legally designated by the Government. These duties are not to be undertaken illicitly by any of our people, and are certainly not to be undertaken spuriously and usurpatively by individuals and organizations strongly suspected as to motive and purpose.

Here is a news item which gives you an idea of the tremendous bureaucratic machine set up by our President. Note the similarity of this to the one set up by Hitler:

FACTS WANTED

Only Treacle Flows from Washington

With all the rapidly multiplying Government "information services" just how much real and valuable "information" have the people gotten out of them? Precisely, None. These "information services" are costing the taxpayers $27,000,000 a year. They employ 2995 persons on full time and 31,618 on part time. What most of them hand out is not information at all, it is Propaganda—propaganda for "confidence in the Administration". Now if the Administration was dealing forthrightly with the people this "confidence" would be unnecessary:

The people do want information.

They want full information as to what happened at Pearl Harbor.

They want more information as to why the Office of Facts and Figures has no facts or figures of any importance.

They want more information as to why the Normandie lies in the Hudson mud.

They want to know why the Office of Civilian Defense is not under the command of an Army officer.

They want to know what is being done about excess profits for war contractors.

They want some information about a price-control bill that does not control prices.

They want a lot of information about nondefense "pie-counters".

They want some enlightenment on the growing number of "exempt" and "deferred" professions—and the "drags" thereof.

They would like to know—truthfully—what political influences prevent aid, if any, being sent to the brave general MacArthur and his heroic soldiers.

But the "information services" that are costing them at the rate of $27,000,000 a year will tell the people nothing about those matters.

If a newspaper, even timidly, asks about these things it is told that it is an "isolationist", or "on the border line of treason" or something else equally absurd.

The MacLeish and affiliated "services" of public information will not hand out unpleasant "facts and figures". They are, in reality shushing facts. Their "information" is treacle for children.

It is also designed for political consumption for the fall of 1942, when Ed Flynn et al. fear the people may send a "traitorous Republican Congress to Washington.

There is also danger that these official "information services" may all too rapidly evolve into bureaucratic propaganda centers of "enlightenment" a la Dr. Goebbels. In a word, there is too much "complacency" and bouquet-tossing at one another on the Washington stage.

It is the people who are not complacent and who want to know.

The fat cats in Washington fiddle with "figures" while the people PAY, WORK and DIE. What is the remedy?

On March 24th Chairman Dies accused the Roosevelt Administration of bleeding his committee to death after failing to block its continuance by the House by having deliberately planned to cut off its funds. Dies also said that a well organized minority had attempted to impede the committee and charged that more money had been spent in the last four weeks to discredit this committee than Congress would appropriate for its work.

On March 27th, Mrs. Roosevelt took a fling at the veterans of the first World War and was sharply criticized by Lynn U. Stambaugh, National Commander of the American Legion, "for attaching even the slightest portion of the blame for this war to the American veterans of the last war". The remarks he objected to were made by the First Lady on Friday, March 27, before representatives of 18 eastern colleges at Wellesley, Massachusetts. She was quoted as saying that the veterans returned home "without a feeling of obligation to carry on their own thinking". And she certainly let the cat out of the bag in her last statement which was that the nation can not fight this war "unless we know we are fighting for a changed world".

On March 30th Chairman Dies was both criticized and defended by Representatives because of his attack on "at least 35 high officials" of the Board of Economic Warfare, made in a letter to Vice President Wallace. Dies objected to the employment of Maurice Parmelee as principal economist, and the Representatives said his charges were "amply supported". Dies said the 35 had been connected with Communist front jobs and demanded their removal from their jobs. Wallace immediately issued a statement describing the Dies charges as worthy of having been made by an Axis propagandist.

During the debate Representative O'Connor, a Democrat from Montana told the House the present was the wrong time to renew crusades against Communism. "Of course, we have Communists in our country", he said, "but if they are fighting our fight they should not be chased out". Vice President Wallace, in his reply to Dies, said it would be more seemly if Mr. Dies and others of his kind will use their great talents to help the United Nations to win this war, rather than stir up discord among patriotic Americans".

"WALLACE CAN'T TAKE IT", DIES ANSWERS

Dies fired a second critical blast at Vice President Wallace in the controversy. Dies is now resting at his ranch near Jasper, Texas. He said, "Now doesn't that sound exactly like Wallace. He just can't take it—I mean he can't take the truth about the birds that fly around his roost".
6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

Wallace had criticized Dies for an earlier statement leveled at the activities of the BEW, of which Wallace is an ex-officio member. The Dies Committee had accused BEW officials of Communist tendencies.

"Mr. Wallace says the FBI will investigate the facts contained in my letter", Dies continued. "He says if the facts as I presented them, are sustained, proper action will be taken. Mr. Wallace does not say what this action shall be, nor does he say the public shall be given the facts.

"Mr. Wallace does not take issue with the contents of my letter, because he failed to dispute these contents. He only takes issue with the idea of publicly exposing these Government employees and giving the American people the facts. . . .

Need a House-Cleaning

"I do not care for any form of controversy with any public official. But I do want to say hypocrisy and secrecy do not belong in a democracy. I firmly believe military secrets should be kept, but since when has nudism become a military secret?

"I am sure Mr. Wallace did not decide upon the FBI investigation until after I had called his attention to Mr. Parmelee (BEW official and advocate of nudism) and his affiliations.

"Personally, I think we need a house-cleaning in Washington. . . ."

"But", says Boake Carter,

Sabotage Curbed by FBI Vigilance

"But the greatest menace with which the FBI has to cope is the nation-wide and coldly efficient Communist fifth column. . . .

"With consummate skill, the most dangerous and universal fifth column ever established in any nation now operates in this country. The German success in Norway, which is held up as the classic example of a result of an effective fifth column, was amateurish compared to what is now operated by the Communists in the United States.

"Prior to 1939, when any one went after the Commies, the latter quickly ducked behind the skirts of labor or the New Deal and diverted threatened exposures by screaming: 'Tory! Wall Street!' or 'International Banker!' Their New Deal affinities and pipelines into high places provided them with ways and means of dealing with the FBI whenever the latter's agents grew too hot on the scent. The FBI is a Bureau within the Department of Justice. The Attorney General sets the policy pace. And he, whoever he may be, gets his timing from the White House.

"From 1939 until June, 1941, the FBI made magnificent headway against this deadly fifth column. Its ramifications were expertly traced. Its hide-outs, its channels of communications, the faces of its operatives and their identities, their tricks of dodge and concealment, and many, many more essentials were marked down. Because of what the FBI learned, its agents were able to quietly warn thousands of manufacturers of the presence of political saboteurs in thier factories and advise what should be done to checkmate them.

But in June, 1941, came the German march into Russia. Promptly these world circumstances switched the Soviets into a position paralleling that of the United Nations. . . . Overnight the Communist Party line in the United States swung back into full official favor. Where for almost two years, any one in Washington seldom called off the FBI, it is now today, undesirable, unsocial, undemocratic and pretty near treason to suggest in high Government circles that America's greatest current menace is the deadly fifth column built up by the Communist agents.

"And the greatest fear that haunts the FBI whose men are grim men, not given to necromancy in tasks where very life itself may be forfeit any moment—is the day when Stalin and Hitler will make a new deal to quit fighting and both turn on America and other United Nations. For on that day, the Communist fifth column in the United States will go into action. The stoppage offered by 3000 G-men would be like a spadeful of earth tossed against a Mississippi flood.

"That the Commies today being wined, dined, toasted and given the keys to America might be sending America's factories up in smoke tomorrow, is simply a thought too fantastic for the national Capitol. Whenever anyone suggests it too loudly or earnestly, certain quarters in high Government circles laugh mockingly and say: 'Red-baiter'."

What is the remedy? The following tells what one state is doing:

THE MESSAGE OF TEXAS

Here is the message of Texas to the men who represent that state in Washington. This letter will go to every Texas representative, and to Tom Connally and Lee O'Daniel, their senators. It will be signed by almost every upstanding citizen in Texas, tens of thousands of them—citizens who carry their weight at the polls. Here's the letter:

"Gentlemen: In this grave hour of the nation's history, we folks back home, who have selected you as our trustees, are alarmed and disgusted with the chaotic condition of affairs in general in Washington. . . We have no patience with fighting and squabbling between bureaus and agencies over jurisdictional power and maintenance. We are angry and apprehensive over military and administrative blunders, bungling and delays.

"We stand ready to sacrifice everything—time, money, work, our sons and daughters, or our lives—to save our country and preserve the American way of life. The history of your State testifies that the citizens of it have never failed in the hour of crisis.

Forget Politics

"We not only expect but demand that you, our elected representatives, live up to the traditions of Texas. Let politicians of other States worry about politics. Let politicians of other States fret about who is a Democrat and who is a Republican. Let politicians of other States look with greedy eyes toward election day. Let politicians of other States place themselves above the country.

"Let the politicians of other States stoop to the mean and little things: patronage, pork barrels and all the other things that keep little men in big offices.

"Texas has its eyes on you. It's more than a song or a catchword now. You live up to Texas. Texas expects you to give unstintingly and unselfishly of your time and effort to remedy the existing evils, profit by past mistakes, and, with no thought of personal ambition or political gain, co-operate to promote the most efficient, streamlined administration of this war that the world has ever seen. We have placed our trust in you and it must be vindicated in your record".

That is the message of Texas to the men who represent it in Washington. That is a message that the people of California and every other State in our union would do well to send to the men who represent them in Washington. The people of Texas "ain't kidding"—they mean business. And they will back up every word they speak or write.

It is for you to do your duty as a citizen. Bombard your Congressmen with your demands. Let them know that you are the ones to give orders and not the President. Our Constitution defines his duties, and I see no mention that running Congress is one of them. Our Government has three branches. He is merely the Executive.

Congress is to take care of legislation, acting for the people and not for the President. Then the Judiciary takes care of the interpretation of those laws. Thousands of acts of the President have been unconstitutional. Let Congress know that you want them to return to Constitutional Government, that they turn to the right, or else—

Probably by the time this gets into print the Primary Elections will be over. If you are so childish as to think the Administration intends to have a free or even any election at all, you are badly fooled. Their program includes the final take-over this year as a war emergency. I will grant that we are surrounded by enemies. We have very few friends and they are impotent because we have had to go to their help, namely, Australia and New Zealand, and later it will be Canada. In a subsequent article I am going to show that Russia is going to strike and strike hard with the very implements that we are supplying to them. That is why in these very last hours I am urging you to get into action by making your demands known to your Representatives in Washington. Then, buy this number by the hundreds and place them in the hands of bankers, business men and the farmer whose markets have been taken away for nations whose living conditions are lower; yes, we planned it that way.

Fortunately God is going to play a very vital role in the closing days of the great battle now raging. We look at it as material, but it is in reality a battle for the spiritual supremacy of the world. Those are very high stakes. The winner will have dominion over material things, over life and over your mode of living.

We spend long hours culling the material that you may be enlightened. and now for your own protection, I urge you to help to enlighten your neighbor. It is too late to do it with 1 or 2 copies a month. This must be a wholesale program or nothing.

We have shown you the why of the curtailment and crack-down program on cars, rubber, gas, sugar and many other items. It is not necessary to continue. We have shown you enough to give the entire picture. We have a few thousand back numbers on our shelves. Now take it as your duty as a citizen to pass this information along to those who still believe in Constitutional Government. I would hate to be in your shoes if you are standing idly on the side lines. "Choose you this day whom ye will serve; . . . but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord", (Joshua 24:15). Will you serve the powers of Light or the powers of Darkness? There is no middle course.

THE OPEN DOOR

A Message given through IDA HAGEN MARSHALL,
Author of "Tracings of Eternal Light"

I see a huge black mountain with a sharp white cap. Thousands of people are climbing up and on into the Light Zone at the top.

"This is the safety zone for all who dwell upon the earth whose consciousness is raised to the awareness of the Eternal One seated upon the throne of grace in Christ. Rejoice in the everlasting life and let no fear or shadow smite thee. Fears, shadows, divisions, hatreds, condemnation, are all of the mists clearing from the consciousness of man. They are not abiding qualities, but love, light, compassion, understanding, grace, joy, peace holiness are all at one in the heart principle of Christ being. Therefore do they clothe you with the rainbow tints of all that the promise therein portends, and this is the garment of light that ye shall wear in the resurrection, for these are threads of that eternal weave of the garment that waxeth not old.

"Therefore, rejoice, and again I say, rejoice, as ye touch the quality found only through the Open Door, opening the door of consciousness by permission of will, permitting the constant downpour of the baptismal light of Holy Spirit, the light that quickeneth every atom of being; the light that shall fulfill in you all the glories ye can not now comprehend. But each step shall grow more radiant as ye shall go forth into that consciousness of Christ Light and all the qualities therein implied.

"Remember this and be mindful of the vision that pours through from the illimitable Spirit of God, for in that is illumination. As ye stand before the world do ye radiate the light of love and peace beyond understanding, for the human mind can not grasp the why or the wherefore that spirit gives freely of its being, which is light from God. But the human mind becomes blinded by the light and by the light it is doomed to become as naught of itself, but as the instrument to become the hold self attuned to the God principle. So be it in Christ.

"From the Dove of the Holy Heart of Christ".

THE KAMBA HERB

people wrote in about the herb we spoke of in the February Light. Well, it is perfectly respectable. Here is what the creator's label says; you see it is registered, and has its trade Kamba, which is derived from the Latin name of the herb. We found it to have a marked effect upon a sluggish liver, and I am bothered with it at times, due to the fact that I get hardly any exercise, sitting at a desk all day long.

The following is quoted from the label used with the dry herb:
